CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric, 1989 Erika Lindemann, Sandra Monroe Fleming, 1991-05-01 Published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication this volume offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1989 volume lists and annotates 1 857 articles books dissertations and papers A group of 127 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for all entries The volume includes an index of authors and editors and cross references entries according to subject matter Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although The CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews it includes review essays articles appearing in some 150 journals scholarly books and essay collections citations to dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC Other bibliographies in the field of composition studies The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric is more comprehensive than other bibliographies in the field of composition studies It also draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective

Exploring Composition Studies Kelly Ritter, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2012-04-30 Kelly Ritter and Paul Kei Matsuda have created an essential introduction to the field of composition studies for graduate students and instructors new to the study of writing The book offers a careful exploration of this diverse field focusing specifically on scholarship of writing and composing Within this territory the authors draw the boundaries broadly to include allied sites of research such as professional and technical writing writing across the curriculum programs writing centers and writing program administration Importantly they represent composition as a dynamic eclectic field influenced by factors both within the academy and without The editors and their sixteen seasoned contributors have created a comprehensive and thoughtful exploration of composition studies as it stands in the early twenty first century Given the rapid growth of this field and the evolution of its research and pedagogical agendas over even the last ten years this multi vocal introduction is long overdue

CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1990 Erika Lindemann, 1991-12-30 Published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication this 1990 volume lists and annotates 1 849 articles books dissertations and papers A group of 136 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for all entries The volume includes an index of authors and editors and cross references entries according to subject matter Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1992 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1994-04 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1992 volume lists and annotates 1 656 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1992 calendar year A group of 149 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Further the range of texts represented in the CCCC Bibliography has been expanded to include a greater number of entries dealing with feminism critical theory technology and cultural studies as they relate to composition and rhetoric Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the ends of subsections Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 228 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC

CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric, 1991 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1993 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1991 volume lists and annotates 1 925 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1991 calendar year A group of 171 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Annotations accompany all entries in this volume They describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and insofar as the English language allows are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about while leaving readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits Most annotations serve one of three functions they present the document's thesis main argument or major research finding they describe the work's major organizational divisions or they indicate the purpose or scope of the work The subject index lists most of the topics discussed in the works cited in this volume Consulting the Subject Index will help users locate sections and subsections containing large numbers of entries addressing the same topic Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the end of each subsection Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master's theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 220 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC

CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1995 Gail Stygall, Kathleen Murphy, 1999-08 Published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication this bibliography provides an annual listing of scholarship on written English and teaching at the college level Entries appear under six major categories Bibliographies and Checklists Theory and Research Teacher Education Administration and Social Roles Curriculum Testing Measurement and Evaluation Listservs Electronic Resources and WWW Sites This volume lists and annotates nearly two thousand articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1995 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter As usual the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine the entry's usefulness Annotations are brief and are not meant to be descriptive or evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits Some of the main topics are self explanatory while others require some explanation Bibliographies and Checklists are clear enough but Theory and Research may not be These entries discuss concepts or hypotheses explain how people learn describe fields or methodologies examine historical developments review previous explanations of a subject or advance conclusions drawn from empirical evidence Teacher Education Administration and Social Roles obviously covers the education of teachers and administrative and personnel policies this topic also deals with services supporting classroom instruction and relations between educational institutions and the larger society Listservs Electronic Resources and WWW Sites deals with the Internet's electronic discussion groups interested in theory and practice in composition and rhetoric

CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1993 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1995-06 Greatly expanded over past years this volume lists and annotates 2 054 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1993 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Entries in this present volume include topics with which rhetoricians and compositionists have always concerned themselves The 1993 volume is however the largest CCCC Bibliography so far with many of its titles dealing with the relationship of composition and rhetoric to critical theory gender issues and cultural studies This volume also differs from earlier editions in that it contains a new section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits
