The writings of Denise Desautels have circulated in Quebec and Europe for some thirty years or so She is considered to be one of the most talented poets in Quebec often taking inspiration from the visual arts which she has a gift for seeing in words As her translator I was very conscious of this aspect of her work and when various choices arose in the course of the translation process I almost always opted for the most pictorial or the most visual element possible A picture is worth a thousand words as the saying goes but the picture once created can give rise in the poet s mind to metaphors and word art that allow us to see the same picture in a totally new and profound way Denise Desautels has performed this feat of poetic legerdemain brilliantly in The Night Will be Insistent Daniel Sloate Les Fauves Nathalia Brodskaya, 2012-01-16

La

littérature qu'abaisse en transformation l'étude de l'espace a apporté de nouvelles perspectives la problématique de la sexualité. Bien que cet ouvrage soit une des premières tentatives pour mettre en rapport ces deux champs de recherche complexes les articles témoignent du bon fond de l'entreprise certains mettent l'accent sur des configurations qui jusque-là restaient du domaine de l'intuition ou de la perception d'autres avancent qu'il y a eu des changements significatifs dans la littérature qu'abaisse plus particulièrement ces dernières décennies. En effet ce ne sont pas seulement les espaces réels traditionnellement délimités entre hommes et femmes qui sont devenus poreux mouvants voire interchangeables mais avec la remise en question des modèles sexuels le sujet de l'écriture a établi une relation souvent difficile l'espace corporel ce qui n'a pas manqué d'influencer l'espace textuel. Dynamique et audacieuse la littérature qu'abaisse suit le rythme de l'évolution de la pensée contemporaine pour créer de nouveaux espaces réels et symboliques marqués par la sexualité.
