Cease To Exit A Creations Reader:

Cease to Exist Henry Rollins, James Havoc, 1996-03-01      Contested Creations in the Book of Job Abigail Pelham, 2012-05-25 In Contested Creations in the Book of Job the world as it ought and ought not to be Abigail Pelham reads the Book of Job both forwards examining the perspectives on creation presented by Job and his friends and corrected by God's authoritative voice from the whirlwind and backwards demonstrating how the epilogue explodes readers' certainties forcing a reappraisal of the characters' claims. The epilogue Pelham argues changes the book from one containing answers about creation to one which poses questions. What does it mean to make the world? Who has the power to create? If humans have creative power is it divinely sanctioned or has Job acting creatively set himself up as God's rival? Engaging more thoroughly with Job's ambiguity than previous scholars have done Contested Creations explores the possibilities raised by these questions and considers their implications both within the book and beyond.

The Flawed Family of God Carolyn B. Helsel, Song-Mi Suzie Park, 2021-02-09 The best stories in the book of Genesis involve families. The issues these stories raise—married vs. single life, sibling rivalry, infertility, family relocation, blended families, and the like—are startlingly relevant to families of today. This Bible study examines the families of Genesis, starting with how the Adam and Eve story encompasses far more ways of being family than most of us think. It looks at the sibling rivalry of the Cain and Abel story, pointing to the jealousy and violence to which the whole human family seems addicted. It uses the ups and downs of the relationship between Abraham Sarah Hagar and Ishmael can help us understand the complicated dynamic of blended families Carol Helsel and Suzie Park invite readers these and many other connections as they reexamine the joys and complications of modern family life This engaging Bible study includes questions for individual reflection or group use
