Handouts for Families

25 DAYS OF Literacy
Daily literacy-building activities to share with your child.
READING	WRITING	TALKING	SINGING	PLAYING
Have your child help you prepare a recipe by helping measure and follow the recipe.	Using masking tape, write your child's name in large letters on the floor. Trace each letter by walking on it.	Play show and tell to build speaking confidence. Everyone chooses something they're interested in and talks about it.	Sing about what you are doing.	Make a list of objects found outside and try to spot them during a walk.
Show your child a selection of books. Ask which they'd like to read first, second, etc.	Create a menu for the week and write it down. Include the main courses, sides, and desserts.	Make a phone call to a family member. Allow your child to hold the phone to talk.	Sing familiar songs or make up a song or rhyme.	Act out a favorite story. Pretend to be characters and describe the events during the story.
Read aloud a portion of a magazine, book, or newspaper you are reading.	Invite your child to help you write an email or text. Show how you pick out the letters on the keyboard to spell.	Talk about what to expect in each season of the year. Talk about the weather, signs of that season, and what to wear.	Play or sing your favorite song together. Sing it fast, slow, loud, and in a whisper.	Lie up chairs and pretend to go to an airport. Write down your schedule or itinerary.
Make labels for common items in your home.	Write a shopping list together. Take it to the store and check off the items as they are selected.	Have your child "interview" others with fun questions. This encourages them to ask questions and listen actively.	Sing a favorite song and look up the lyrics. Follow the lyrics as you sing.
Post out street signs, words on food cartons, billboards, and more.	Create a writing box together. Fill it with crayons, markers, pencils, and paper. Decorate the outside and leave it within easy reach.	Post to and name body parts and their function.
