Community Empowerment, Sustainable Cities, and Transformative Economies Taha Chaiechi, Jacob Wood, 2022-01-12 This edited volume presents the conference papers from the 1st International Conference on Business Economics Management and Sustainability BEMAS organized by the Centre for International Trade and Business in Asia CITBA at James Cook University This book argues that the orthodox methods of external risks climate change adaptation plans and sustainable economic growth in cities are no longer adequate These methods so far have not only ignored the ongoing structural changes associated with economic development but also failed to account for evolving industries composition and the emergence of new comparative advantages and skills Specifically this book looks at the vulnerable communities and exposed areas particularly in urban areas that tend to experience higher susceptibility to external risks such as climate change natural disasters and public health emergencies have been largely ignored in incremental adaptation plans Vulnerable communities and areas not only require different adaptive responses to climate risk but also possess unlocked adaptive capacity that can motivate different patterns of sustainable development to achieve the goals of the 2030 Agenda It is essential therefore to view transformative growth and fundamental reorientation of economic resources as integral parts of the solution Social disorganisation and vulnerability are other undesired outcomes of the unpredictable and widespread external economic shocks This is due to a sudden and tough competition between members of society to acquire precious resources most of which may be depleted during unprecedented events such as natural disasters or pandemics resulting in an even more chaotic and disorganised conditions

Kingdom Of Ten Thousand Things Gary Geddes, 2012-08-14 For thirty years Gary Geddes has lived with his shadow self an obscure 5th century Buddhist monk named Huishen whose legend shanghaied his vivid imagination Huishen originally from Kabul Afghanistan reportedly sailed from China to Vancouver Island continuing southward to Mexico In a journey to recreate the travels of Huishen Geddes finds himself not only struggling to cross the ancient barriers of the Himalayas the Taklamakan Desert the Pacific Ocean and the jungles of Central America but also gingerly picking his way through Taliban landmines and Chinese and Zapatista politics From Afghan refugees to Tibetan monks and the ghost of Quetzalcoatl in Mexico Geddes encounters a host of quirky characters and fast friends none so compelling and insistent as the voice of Huishen who speaks to him mysteriously across the centuries But not even Huishen could imagine the events of 9 11 which transform Geddes journey beyond a quest for an elusive monk into an exploration of the ways in which we learn to interpret history Sacred profane and richly comic Kingdom of Ten Thousand Things a Chinese term for life itself is a remarkable personal odyssey a cornucopia of adventure philosophy and hearsay a book that will disarm and delight while provoking debate just who got here first anyway High Fidelity ,1986 Contains Records in review Microtimes ,1995 Popular Photography ,1994
