where every person in the organization not only leadership is committed to delivering exceptional results It s a matter of creating an environment where individuals feel empowered to innovate problem solve and continuously improve Excellence is one of those words that you hear thrown around a lot If we are not careful it has the potential to turn into a buzzword of sorts However excellence is a work ethic and a leadership philosophy It s about having high standards holding ourselves simple It requires commitment consistency and sometimes a willingness to disrupt the status quo Leadership by example When leaders walk their talk on a daily basis it sets a ripple effect for the rest of the organization Consider excellent leaders you look up to whether in business sports or the nonprofit sector They motivate others not only with what they say but with what they do An unstoppable quest to get better Successful companies don t accept good enough They say How can we do this better and implement systems to monitor and gauge improvement A strong dedication to customer service Internal departments or external customers a culture of excellence focuses on providing value and surpassing expectations An engaged motivated workforce When individuals feel appreciated and know that they re working toward the greater good they show up to work as their best selves Leadership by example When leaders walk their talk on a daily basis it sets a ripple
