Promoting Equity in Approximations of Practice for Mathematics Teachers Wilkerson Lee, Carrie, Bondurant, Liza, Sapkota, Bima, Howell, Heather, 2024-11-07 Within the field of mathematics teacher education a profound challenge echoes the persistent gap between theoretical understanding and practical application This lingering divide raises a critical concern one that finds its focus in the exploration of transformative tools known as approximations of practice These tools aim to provide a realistic and contextualized environment for PSTs to cultivate their teaching skills However the broader often overlooked issue permeating this educational terrain is the question of equity in mathematics instruction an issue that this book endeavors to unravel and reshape positioning equity at the forefront of pedagogical considerations Promoting Equity in Approximations of Practice for Mathematics Teachers a compelling work that not only delves into the transformative role of approximations but also champions equity as a cornerstone in reshaping the landscape of mathematics education This groundbreaking work has a dual objective firstly to furnish mathematics teacher educators and researchers with a comprehensive overview of the current landscape of approximations in mathematics education It moves beyond a mere survey encouraging readers to critically analyze frameworks and design choices that either foreground or dismiss equity in these pedagogical spaces Divided into three sections the book delves into the spectrum of work characterizing approximations in mathematics teacher education The first section surveys diverse approaches acknowledging the current lack of focus on equity The second section critically examines the intersection of equity and approximations fostering collaborations between experts in mathematics education and equity focused researchers The third section takes a forward looking stance envisioning the future of equity focused approximations in mathematics education

Engaging Teacher Candidates and Language Learners With Authentic Practice Lenkaitis, Chesla Ann, Hilliker, Shannon M., 2019-06-28 Teacher candidates need authentic practice with language learners so that they can test and hone their skills based on the concepts learned in their teacher education programs with real students These candidates need practice before and beyond student teaching and fieldwork If they are given the chance to practice during as many teacher education courses as possible and have access to language learners throughout their programs they can focus on applying the specific content of each class they take in a real world context with real students Engaging Teacher Candidates and Language Learners With Authentic Practice highlights strategies teacher educators can use to give their teacher candidates authentic practice attached to coursework By focusing on ways that authentic practice has been integrated into teacher preparation programs and studies that have been realized this publication will provide practical ways for others to provide this authentic practice which is much needed in teacher preparation programs This book highlights topics such as pedagogy student engagement and intercultural competence and is ideal for educators administrators researchers and students

Teaching the Best Practice Way Harvey Daniels, Marilyn Bizar, 2005 Everyone talks about best practice teaching but what does it actually look like in the classroom How do working teachers translate complex curriculum standards into simple workable classroom structures that embody exemplary instruction and still let kids find joy in learning In Teaching the Best Practice Way Harvey Daniels and Marilyn Bizar present seven basic teaching structures that make classrooms more active experiential collaborative democratic and cognitive while simultaneously meeting best practice standards across subject areas and throughout the grades Each section begins with an essay outlining one key method providing its historical background and research results and then describing the structure's vital features Next several teachers representing different grade levels and school communities explain how they adopted the basic model adapted it to their students needs and made it their own Fully updating and expanding Methods that Matter Stenhouse 1998 Teaching the Best Practice Way adds the stories of twenty more celebrated teachers including James Beane Donna Ogle Franki Sibberson and others from around the country A brand new chapter focuses on reading as thinking detailing the ways teachers can nurture strategic readers readers who not only deeply understand the printed materials they encounter in school but who also bring these cognitive strategies to their reading of film art music and their experience of the world The book also shares new research studies that validate the principles and activities of best practice teaching along with lists of recommended materials that support each of the seven methods Unique in the field Teaching the Best Practice Way speaks to all teachers K 12 with stories examples and practical classroom materials for the teachers of all children This is the book for teachers schools and districts that believe the big ideas about teaching really do cross all grade levels and subject areas Education professors will also find this an ideal resource for use in methods courses

K-8 Instructional Methods Allan C. Ornstein, Richard I. Sinatra, 2004-12 This general methods text presents the preservice teacher educator with relevant instructional methods strategies and techniques to help develop an understanding of how literacy instruction impacts the entire K 8 curriculum. Students' success in school particularly in these days of vigorous academic standards and high stakes testing is related to their abilities to read, comprehend, analyze, and reflect through critical thinking, writing, and computer interactions. The text is organized in a realistic and easy-to-use format offering ideas for integrating theory with practice to improve the teaching and learning process. The authors demonstrate solid instructional practices that emphasize reading and related literacy development through the content areas in each grade K 8. The text also examines the impact that reading and literacy development have had upon diversity and multiculturalism, special learners at risk, and economically disadvantaged students and technology and computers.

Strategies for Teaching Learners with Special Needs Edward A. Polloway, James R. Patton, Loretta Serna, 2008. Revised to incorporate important new information about No Child Left Behind and the 2004 reauthorization of IDEA. This classic work in the field of teaching methodology for students with special needs continues to be the most comprehensive textbook available for students with mild to high incidence disabilities, i.e., learning disabilities, mild retardation, intellectual disabilities, emotional and behavioral disorders, and students experiencing learning problems in the general education classroom. The focus of the book is on effective instructional strategies for students being served in diverse educational settings with a primary emphasis on those being taught in inclusive educational environments. In Part I, the text provides basic information on curriculum development and instruction, while in Part II, an in-depth discussion of key curricular areas is provided for educators teaching learning disabled students.
