Digital Nomads. How the era of digitalization creates alternative lifestyles Lisa-Marie Wagner,2020-06-18 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 6 language English abstract In this paper the phenomenon of digital nomadism in permanent employment is presented In general digital nomads are characterized by their independence of location their employment in the digital space and common values Most of them are freelancers and entrepreneurs but also employees who are part of this movement want to leave the conservative concept of normal employment and break new ground First the changes in the business world and the emergence of digital nomadism were presented in this paper Due to a lack of literature guideline based expert interviews were conducted to gain insight into the opportunities and risks of the multi local lifestyle concept for employees and companies In addition the framework conditions for companies and digital nomads required by this work and life concept were examined and presented in detail Such a framework condition can mean for example the adaptation of processes and leadership There are also differences between completely remote companies and only partially remote companies which can lead to a split company structure In this context the similarities and differences between traditional telework and digital nomadism in permanent employment were also examined These are similar for example regarding the technical prerequisites that should be created in companies and the changed communication In addition there are challenges and opportunities that arise from the travel component and the nature of digital nomadism such as negatively impaired processes due to time differences or certain characteristics and experiences that digital nomads possess or experience that can be used positively in a professional context Thus this work not only serves a scientific purpose but also provides a practical framework for employing digital nomads in traditional companies

Space, Structures and Design in a Post-Pandemic World Thomas Fisher, 2022-04-27 Pandemics have long term effects on how we live and work and the COVID 19 pandemic was no exception accelerating us into a digital economy in which people increasingly work shop and learn online transforming how we use space in person and remotely Space Structures and Design in a Post Pandemic World explores the rebalancing of our physical and digital interactions and what it means for the built environment going forward This book examines the effect of the pandemic on our use of land interior space energy and transportation as well as on our approach to design wealth work and practice Author Thomas Fisher also discusses the plagues of institutional racism and climate change that coincided with the COVID 19 pandemic and how these were interrelated At the same time as all of this the automation of all or part of many jobs continued unabated eliminating much of the work that people did before COVID 19 arrived This text discusses how we might leverage the under utilized human talent and material assets all around us to rebuild our communities and our economy in more creative ways for a more equitable resilient future Space Structures and Design in a Post Pandemic World will influence anyone interested in how design thinking can transform how we see the world and those looking for new ways to understand what the COVID 19 pandemic means and what opportunities it creates for our environments
