Practical Hybrid Work Schedule Ideas For Students:

Communities of Practice and Ethnographic Fieldwork Lee Cabatingan, Susan Bibler Coutin, Deyanira Nevárez Martínez, 2024-11-20 Communities of Practice and Ethnographic Fieldwork offers a new perspective on how ethnography might be learned in real time through participation in a supportive community of practice. It draws on the experiences, knowledge, and training of an interdisciplinary group of scholars who have studied legal topics ethnographically alongside and with the support of fellow ethnographers at varying stages of their careers. Contributors address topics that are of interest to those who teach ethnography as well as to those who are learning this approach. Such topics include ethics, positionality in the field, the combination of personal and professional circumstances, and the process and pain of changing research topics. Each chapter emphasizes the role of mentoring and collective problem solving through a lab model of fieldwork practice, particularly when carrying out research with subjects and interlocutors who may have undergone trauma. Written by a diverse group of scholars, this volume will appeal especially to Black Indigenous and People of Color and female identifying ethnographers in a range of fields. It provides a framework for how fieldwork can continue moving forward even in the most challenging of times and will be of particular interest to scholars in anthropology, sociology, law, urban planning, studies, geography, political science, ethnic studies, public policy, sociolegal studies, and education. The Word Study That Sticks Companion Pamela Koutrakos, 2019-05-29 Kickstart joyful independent word study practice in your K-6 classroom. Pamela Koutrakos offers a plethora of tools and ready-to-go resources to help teachers put the inquiry-based structures, lessons, and routines she delivered in her first book, Word Study That Sticks, into action. Loaded with teacher-facing resources such as planning and assessment tools, and student-facing tools such as reproducible minicharts, choice checklists, and self-assessments, The Word Study That Sticks Companion includes routines and materials that can be used within any word study curriculum. Let students take charge of their learning while you gain time for differentiated instruction and make word study fun for students. Engaged Learning in the Public Service Classroom Josephine Gatti Schafer, Bruce D. McDonald III, 2024-12-30 Many that pursue a career in public service do so because they have a passion for their communities and want to pursue solutions to vexing challenges in society. As a result, instructors teaching public service administration and policy courses are challenged to incorporate a range of community engagement practices into their classes to allow students to explore their passion in greater depth while also developing skills to operate in a dynamic governance environment. This pedagogical text explores the variety of ways in which students can become more engaged throughout the public service curriculum. Engaged Learning in the Public Service Classroom introduces a wide range of activities, practices, and behaviors involving students in learning by exploring real-world contexts and issues. Utilizing the tools and concrete examples in the book, students are encouraged to actively explore, experiment, evaluate, and reflect on practical challenges, helping to foster their critical thinking and motivating them to learn. Considering the numerous methods of engaged learning, the editors offer a framework for understanding and implementing different types of engaged learning practices including Field of Practice Community as Laboratory and Service Learning exploring the benefits and practical considerations of each To maximize the book's utility and to provide faculty with the best opportunity for successful implementation the final section of the book focuses on anticipating and overcoming possible challenges when implementing engaged learning This innovative new book is designed specifically to help support current and future instructors and faculty in the disciplines of public affairs public administration and public policy including graduate students
