Teach Like a Human David J. Mulder, 2025-09-18 Are the machines taking over Artificial intelligence suddenly seems to be everywhere including in the world of education With new AI powered tools popping up every day it s no wonder that educators might feel overwhelmed How can we navigate the strange new world of AI without losing our humanity or our sense of humor Blending thoughtful theology practical wisdom and a deep love for teaching this book invites educators to reflect on big questions What does it mean to be a real human in an age of artificial intelligence What tools should we adopt and which ones should we avoid and how can we decide How do we stay grounded in the gospel story while adapting to emerging technologies Rather than offering easy answers or alarmist warnings let s consider an approach that is curious and courageous developing a hopeful vision for education that forms both minds and hearts Standing on the truth of Scripture and keeping a finger on the tech pulse this book helps Christian educators practice thinking faithfully acting ethically and teaching joyfully even when algorithms are everywhere Teaching Christianly with technology isn t about keeping up with the latest tools and trends it s about being the humans God created us to be

Picturing Citizenship Fay Anderson, Jane Lydon, Melissa Miles, Amanda Nettelbeck, 2025-07-24 For many the conditions and privileges of citizenship and the access it provides to equal civil political and social rights are taken for granted Yet citizenship always implies histories of inclusion and exclusion and in settler nations with colonial roots the history of citizenship is entangled with the legacies of colonisation Looking beyond its legal definition to the wider historical processes through which citizenship and its associated ideas of rights and belonging have been imagined debated and found lasting form this collection considers the unique role of visual culture in defining contesting and advancing ideas of citizenship in settler national contexts from the 19th century to the present day Addressing citizenship s particular entanglements with colonial histories in contemporary settler nations the collection considers how images have shaped the meanings and experiences of citizenship from the colonial era through periods of mass global migration to contemporary geopolitical change and debates on Indigenous rights and recognition Contributors explore the role visual culture has played in imagining or interrogating ideas about belonging rights civic identity and the ideal citizen in societies that continue to grapple with their settler colonial origins They ask how image making may be used to negotiate or contest the limits of citizenship whether as a legal or as an imagined cultural category and the role of visual culture in building relationships between citizens non citizens and the state This collection will provide a new and compelling history of citizenship and the ways it has been defined not only by historicising citizenship's visual imagery but by exploring its present effects and legacies
