Remote Data Entry Jobs For Beginners For Teens:

Youth and Employment in Sub-Saharan Africa Hiroyuki Hino, Gustav Ranis, 2014-06-05 It is widely acknowledged that youth unemployment is one of the most critical challenges facing countries in Sub Saharan Africa This volume brings together an eminent group of international scholars to analyse the extent and complex nature of this joblessness and offer a set of evidence based policy choices that could contribute to solving the problem in the short and long run Part I reviews the existing literature on youth unemployment and underemployment in Sub Saharan Africa from microeconomic and macroeconomic perspectives while Part II goes on to present detailed country studies of Ethiopia Ghana Kenya and South Africa These studies offer a deep understanding of the situation on the ground and consider country specific solutions Throughout the book it is argued that the standard ILO definition of unemployment is too narrow to correctly portray employment situations in Sub Saharan Africa Several alternative measures of unemployment are presented which show that joblessness is far more pervasive than commonly assumed in the literature This volume will be of interest to academics and policy makers involved in African development

Effective Technology for Gender Equity in Business and Organizations Darwish, Dina, 2024-08-23 Despite decades of activism and efforts in society and government women still face significant barriers to gender equality and economic empowerment in the business world However advancements in modern technology may present an opportunity to upend the systems that support inequality The industrial revolution may have transformed industries but thus far it has failed to eradicate longstanding inequalities Effective Technology for Gender Equity in Business and Organizations addresses this pressing issue by offering a collection of original research aimed at professionals policymakers and knowledge management experts and examines how new technology can be integrated into various levels of organizations to help continue breaking down barriers and advancing gender equity This book brings together relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical research findings in gender equity with the aid of modern technology It targets professionals seeking to enhance their understanding of modern technology s strategic role in contemporary society including its application at the global economy network team building and information system levels By offering insights into the recent potential to reduce the gender gap and empower women with these advancements this book is a valuable resource for those working in healthcare business organizations information sciences and more

Youth and Skills ,2012-01-01 Many young people around the world especially the disadvantaged are leaving school without the skills they need to thrive in society and find decent jobs As well as thwarting young people s hopes these education failures are jeopardizing equitable economic growth and social cohesion and preventing many countries from reaping the potential benefits of their growing youth populations The 2012 Education for All Global Monitoring Report examines how skills development programmes can be improved to boost young people s opportunities for decent jobs and better lives Publisher s description

Social and Economic Effects of Community Wireless Networks and Infrastructures Abdelaal,

Abdelnasser,2013-02-28 It is surprising to think that in today s rapidly evolving world of technology over half of the globe still does not have access to high speed internet Creating community wireless networks has in the past been a way to provide remote communities with internet and network access Social and Economic Effects of Community Wireless Networks and Infrastructures highlights the successes of community wireless networks but also boldly addresses the potential risk factors and broader socioeconomic concerns This publication s exploration of previous successes and failures various designs and potential challenges with CWNs makes it a valuable resource for researchers practitioners vendors and activists African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick,James Thurlow,2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration Resources in education ,1991 National gender profile of agriculture and rural livelihoods Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2022-05-19 National gender profile of agriculture and rural livelihoods the Republic of Moldova reflects FAO s commitment to promoting gender equality while integrating a gender perspective into its operations The report focuses on the intersections of gender agriculture and rural development and presents a snapshot of critical gender based inequalities and their consequences for agricultural production and rural livelihoods in the Republic of Moldova A picture of significant gender gaps in terms of the rural population s access to educational and employment opportunities and social services is presented In the area of agricultural production women have much more limited access to and control over vital resources including land extension and advisory services and irrigation The assessment includes recommendations on enhancing agriculture and developing rural communities with a gender sensitive perspective taking into consideration gender roles and differences between
