Michael Berman, 2009-03-26 All intellectuals driven by nationalist sentiments directly or indirectly are always preoccupied with searching for the most ancient roots of their budding nations in order to ground their compatriots in particular soil and to make them more indigenous Znamenski 2007 p 28 In Chechnya as in the neighbouring countries of Georgia and Armenia these roots lie in shamanism and the stories in this collection clearly show this to be the case The history of the Nokhchii the name the Chechens have given themselves and their land is filled with rich and colourful stories which have survived for thousands of years through oral traditions that have been passed down generation by generation through clan elders However legends have blended with actual events so that the true history is difficult to write The 1994 1996 war destroyed most of Chechnya's treasured archaeological and historical sites though fortunately ancient burial sites architectural monuments and several prehistoric cave petroglyphs still remain in the mountains These valuable relics coupled with the histories and stories of the elders provide the people with virtually the only remaining evidence of who their ancient ancestors were This book contains both the texts of some of the tales and commentaries on them focusing in particular on their shamanic elements Gender, Nationalism, and War Matthew Evangelista, 2011-02-24 Virginia Woolf famously wrote as a woman I have no country suggesting that women had little stake in defending countries where they are considered second class citizens and should instead be forces for peace Yet women have been perpetrators as well as victims of violence in nationalist conflicts This unique book generates insights into the role of gender in nationalist violence by examining feature films from a range of conflict zones In The Battle of Algiers female bombers destroy civilians while men dress in women's clothes to prevent the French army from capturing and torturing them Prisoner of the Mountains shows a Chechen girl falling in love with her Russian captive as his mother tries to rescue him Providing historical and political context to these and other films Matthew Evangelista identifies the key role that economic decline plays in threatening masculine identity and provoking the misogynistic violence that often accompanies nationalist wars Clans and Democratization: Chechnya, Albania, Afghanistan and Iraq Charlotte Hille, 2020-05-06 In Clans and Democratization Charlotte Hille investigates clan societies in Afghanistan Iraq Albania and Chechnya She explores and compares the values of clans with those in Western democratic states while focusing at conflict resolution and democratization Based on theory and practice this book provides tools to facilitate democratic state building in clan based societies Chechens in the European Union Alexander Janda, Norbert Leitner, Mathias Vogl, 2008 Handbook of Terrorist and Insurgent Groups Scott N. Romaniuk, Animesh Roul, Pamela Fabe, János Besenyő, 2024-10-24 Handbook of Terrorist and Insurgent Groups A Global Survey of Threats Tactics and Characteristics examines the most current and significant terrorist and insurgent groups around the world The purpose is to create a descriptive mosaic of what is a pointedly global security challenge The volume brings together conceptual approaches to terrorism insurgency and cyberterrorism with substantive and empirical analyses of individual groups organisations and networks By doing so not only does the coverage highlight the past present and future orientations of the most prominent groups but it also examines and illustrates their key characteristics and how they operate including key leaders and ideologues Highlighting specific individual groups the chapters collectively present a robust and comprehensive outlook on the current geography of terrorism and insurgency groups operating in the world today This comprehensive volume brings the collective expertise and knowledge of more than 50 academics intelligence and security officials and professionals together all of whom are considered subject experts in their respective areas of research and practice The volume is based on both desk based and fieldwork conducted by experts in these areas incorporating analyses of secondary literature but also the use of primary data including first hand interviews on the various groups regions of operation their tactics and how their ideologies motivate their actions A Handbook of Chechen Verbal Conjugation Saidamin Shamilov, Elza Paskushova, 2005 Defense & foreign affairs handbook Gregory R. Foreign Area Studies, Frederic H. Chaffee, 1969 Area Handbook for the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, 1969 As If Silent and Absent Ehud R. Toledano, 2007 This groundbreaking book reconceptualizes slavery through the voices of enslaved persons themselves voices that have remained silent in the narratives of conventional history Focusing in particular on the Islamic Middle East from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century Ehud R Toledano examines how bonded persons experienced enslavement in Ottoman societies He draws on court records and a variety of other unexamined primary sources to uncover important new information about the

Africans and Circassians who were forcibly removed from their own societies and transplanted to Middle East cultures that were alien to them Toledano also considers the experiences of these enslaved people within the context of the global history of slavery The book looks at the bonds of slavery from an original perspective moving away from the traditional master slave domination paradigm toward the point of view of the enslaved and their responses to their plight With keen and original insights Toledano suggests new ways of thinking about enslavement
