Names and Naming in Young Adult Literature Alleen Pace Nilsen, Don L. F. Nilsen, 2007-07-05 This book shows how authors of young adult literature use the creation of names for people places events inventions animals and imaginary concepts as one of their most important literary techniques Chapters address how authors use names to stretch readers emotions to reveal ethnic values and differences to create other worlds and to establish tone Other chapters focus on how authors use names to help readers remember who is who such as J K Rowling in the Harry Potter books or to communicate separate messages to adults and to young readers as exemplified by Richard Handler in the Lemony Snicket books Names and Naming in Young Adult Literature equips readers with the interest and the skill to make similar observations about names and naming when they read other books Looking at the names an author has chosen to use is a wonderful first step in introducing readers to the concept of literary criticism as something to help readers get more pleasure and information from their reading Public and school librarians college instructors of young adult literature teachers of creative writing high school English teachers and anyone else who is interested in young adult literature will find this book extremely interesting

Forever Young Chris Richards, 2008 This book explores young adult fictions stories about being young staying young and sometimes never wanting to grow up Looking at controversial novels by Francesca Lia Block at sex and race in Buffy the Vampire Slayer and at the online world of fans and censors Chris Richards argues that attempts to classify and regulate what counts as young adult have failed and shows how youth as intense exciting and tormented draws audiences unconstrained by age Throughout the book the narratives of life as lived by the young emerge as the stuff of the self made and remade in reading watching and listening Fascinating and accessible Forever Young will be of particular interest to students and teachers concerned with contemporary popular culture in cultural media literature and education studies courses
