Comparative World Data A Statistical Handbook For Social Science:

Comparative World Data Georg P. Müller, 1988-01 Comparative World Data Georg P. Mueller, 1990 Comparative World Data Georg P. Müller, 1988 Transferring Information Literacy Practices Billy Tak Hoi Leung, Jingzhen Xie, Linlin Geng, Priscilla Nga Ian Pun, 2019-05-28 This book focuses on information literacy for the younger generation of learners and library readers. It is divided into four sections: 1 Information Literacy for Life, 2 Searching Strategies, Disciplines and Special Topics, 3 Information Literacy Tools for Evaluating and Utilizing Resources, 4 Assessment of Learning Outcomes. Written by librarians with wide experience in research and services and a strong academic background in disciplines such as the humanities, social sciences, information technology, and library science, this valuable reference resource combines both theory and practice. In today's ever-changing era of information, it offers students of library and information studies insights into information literacy as well as learning tips they can use for life.

Tools and Techniques for Social Science Simulation Ramzi Suleiman, Klaus G. Troitzsch, Nigel Gilbert, 2012-12-06 The use of computer simulations to study social phenomena has grown rapidly during the last few years. Many social scientists from the fields of economics, sociology, psychology, and other disciplines now use computer simulations to study a wide range of social phenomena. The availability of powerful personal computers, the development of multidisciplinary approaches, and the use of artificial intelligence models have all contributed to this development. The benefits of using computer simulations in the social sciences are obvious. This holds true for the use of simulations as tools for theory building and for its implementation as a tool for sensitivity analysis and parameter optimization in application-oriented models. In both simulation provides powerful tools for the study of complex social systems, especially for dynamic and multi-agent social systems in which mathematical tractability is often impossible. The graphical display of simulation output renders it user-friendly to many social scientists that lack sufficient familiarity with the language of mathematics. The present volume aims to contribute in four directions: 1 To examine theoretical and methodological issues related to the application of simulations in the social sciences. By this we wish to promote the objective of designing a unified user-friendly simulation toolkit which could be applied to diverse social problems. While no claim is made that this objective has been met, the theoretical issues treated in Part 1 of this volume are a contribution towards this objective.

Global Publics, Political Parties and Morality Arno Tausch, 2025-08-26 This book provides a groundbreaking empirical study on the persistence of religious morality in an increasingly secular world. Analyzing data from the 2019-2022 World Values Survey and European Values Survey, it examines religious adherence and morality across 82 countries and over 400 political parties. Using advanced index methodologies, the study reveals where and how religious norms, particularly those rooted in the Ten Commandments, continue to shape social values and how this affects political party support. Essential for scholars, policymakers, and religious communities, this book challenges the notion that secularization is inevitable and explores the complex relationship between faith, politics, and global development. In this book, Arno Tausch, a political scientist associated with the University of the Free State in South Africa impressively demonstrates that the Western political left would be well advised to return to the fundamental values of social democracy that are open to world religions as set out by Karl Polanyi rather than following the ideas of Michel Foucault and Judith Butler From the perspective of the Global South he radically reveals how the Western world is moving away from the ethical imperatives of world religions This is a disturbing yet highly topical issue as evidenced by the recent elections in America Werner J Patzelt Professor Emeritus of Political Systems and Comparative Politics TU Dresden MCC Brussels Visiting Professor of Research Incisive and erudite Arno Tausch's latest offering Global Publics Political Parties and Morality An analysis based on the World Values Survey is a magnificent account of the state of the politicisation of faith in different contexts Theoretically anchored and empirically rich this book is a must for those seeking to grapple with the place of religion in our fragile polities Professor Hussein Solomon Centre for Gender and Africa Studies University of the Free State South Africa

International Business Research Neelankavil, 2015-05-18 As more and more companies enter the global business arena it is critical that they acquire relevant information specific to their industry and the country that they wish to enter This book explains how to perform accurate timely and appropriate research to make informed strategic decisions The chapters of International Business Research follow the overall research process defining the research problem explanation of research methodologies data analysis report writing and dissemination The book presents methodologies for most functional areas and can be used as a research tool for the broad international business field It includes in chapter learning objectives exercises summaries boxed inserts and a detailed glossary In addition a sample data disk is bound into each copy of the book

The Future of the Gulf Region Arno Tausch, 2021-08-09 This book studies values and attitudes in the Gulf region In light of global power shifts the threatening collapse of internal security in the West and uncertainty about the current leadership vacuum in world society this book explores a future leading role of the Gulf countries in such institutions as the G 20 and the OECD Based on rigorous analysis of macro level data and opinion surveys with relevance for the Gulf region it analyzes the global macro factors shaping the Gulf's future at a time of the global COVID 19 crisis and depression and rising global tensions Starting with an empirical time series analysis of the long cycles of global politics and economics it highlights the implications for the Gulf region Offering a multivariate analysis of civil society values in the Gulf the author analyzes value changes and attitudes on antisemitism political Islam internal security democracy and other issues of Arab politics The partially optimistic conclusions of the study testify to the underestimated and incipient maturity of the Gulf's civil society and strongly suggest that the Gulf's future is rather with the free societies of the West and not with a Neo Ottoman Empire in whatever form Exceptional in scope and right up to the minute in coverage Brian M Pollins Associate Professor Emeritus The Ohio State University An outstanding and topical book by an astute scholar of the MENA region Professor Hussein Solomon Academic Head of Department Political Studies and Governance University of the Free State South Africa The most comprehensive and insightful study on the subject to date
