A few years ago blogging was highly sought after as a preferred method of building a brand online and being able to generate passive income from multiple income streams. Whether you wanted to make money as an affiliate through email marketing through having a membership area, selling an online course, selling advertising space or through selling software and other digital products, blogging was seen as the master key to all these income streams. These days you will mostly see people talk about blog success stories of blogs started before 2010. And I know you might wonder: In the days of YouTube and Instagram, is blogging still a viable way to make consistent passive income online? If it is, how do you package yourself to be different from the rest? Where do you even start? What do you even blog about that will get you on the path to passive income fast? How do you get your blog to show up top in the search engine results?
