EQ-5D-5L Nancy Devlin, Bram Roudijk, Kristina Ludwig, 2022-03-23 This open access book provides an essential guide to value sets for anyone working with EQ 5D 5L data The EQ 5D 5L is one of the most widely used health related quality of life questionnaires around the world with applications in clinical trials population health surveys and routine outcomes measurement In addition to providing a concise generic way of describing health the EQ 5D 5L facilitates the valuation of health and health improvements through its value sets which play a pivotal role in Health Technology Assessment across the world Value sets for the EQ 5D 5L have been produced in a wide range of countries and regions using a standardised international protocol developed by the EuroQol Group This book brings together for the first time a comprehensive inventory of these value sets and a comparative review of their characteristics In addition to the structured summaries of each value set the book provides clear guidance to users and researchers on how to choose which value set to use for what purpose It also provides information about the methods that were used to produce these values how these methods have been refined and how they may evolve in future The book is the culmination of a substantial programme of work internationally By collating these value sets into a single volume the book aims to provide an easy to use resource which is likely to become a key reference source for EQ 5D 5L users and researchers

Active Learning: Theoretical Perspectives, Empirical Studies and Design Profiles Robert Cassidy, Elizabeth S. Charles, James D. Slotta, Nathaniel Lasry, 2019-07-11 This book represents the emerging efforts of a growing international network of researchers and practitioners to promote the development and uptake of evidence based pedagogies in higher education at something a level approaching large scale impact By offering a communication venue that attracts and enhances much needed partnerships among practitioners and researchers in pedagogical innovation we aim to change the conversation and focus on how we work and learn together i e extending the implementation and knowledge of co design methods In this first edition of our Research Topic on Active Learning we highlight two of the three types of publications we wish to promote First are studies aimed at understanding the pedagogical designs developed by practitioners in their own practices by bringing to bear the theoretical lenses developed and tested in the education research community These types of studies constitute the practice pull that we see as a necessary counterbalance to knowledge push in a more productive pedagogical innovation ecosystem based on research practitioner partnerships Second are studies empirically examining the implementations of evidence based designs in naturalistic settings and under naturalistic conditions Interestingly the teams conducting these studies are already exemplars of partnerships between researchers and practitioners who are uniquely positioned as in between straddling the two worlds As a result these publications represent both the rigours of research and the pragmatism of reflective practice In forthcoming editions we will add to this collection a third type of publication design profiles These will present practitioner developed pedagogical designs at varying levels of abstraction to be held to scrutiny amongst practitioners instructional designers and researchers alike We hope by bringing these types of studies together in an open access format that we may contribute to the development of new forms of practitioner researcher interactions that promote co design in pedagogical innovation
