Diffusing Software Product and Process Innovations Mark A. Ardis, Barbara L. Marcolin, 2013-04-17
Diffusing Software Product and Process Innovations addresses the problems and issues surrounding successful diffusion of innovations in software. Everett Rogers' classic text Diffusion of Innovations provides a valuable framework for evaluating and applying technology transfer methods. In today's new economy, the most important innovations may well be new software products and processes. Topics covered in this valuable new book include Implementation and coordination issues, New interpretations of diffusion theory, Diffusion of software processes, Contextual factors, Communication of information, Experience reports. This volume contains the edited proceedings of the Fourth Working Conference on Diffusing Software Product and Process Innovations, which was sponsored by the International Federation for Information Processing (IFIP) Working Group 8.6 and held in Banff, Canada, in April 2001. It reflects the latest experiences of practitioners and theories of academics in this fast-changing field.

Contemporary Issues in End User Computing Mo Adam Mahmood, 2007
Contemporary Issues in End User Computing brings a wealth of end user computing information to one accessible location. This collection includes empirical and theoretical research concerned with all aspects of end user computing, including development, utilization, and management. Contemporary Issues in End User Computing is divided into three sections covering Web-based end user computing tools and technologies, end user computing software and trends, and end user characteristics and learning. This scholarly book features the latest research findings dealing with end user computing concepts, issues, and trends.

Electronic Commerce Steve Elliot, 2002-03-15
Despite upheaval, industry continues to embrace the concepts of electronic commerce. Yet a major barrier to widespread implementation is uncertainty within organizations as to how best to proceed. This proven guide to the implementation of B2C e-commerce addresses the documented uncertainties of business and consumers with Internet retailing by presenting the experiences of leading players in each of six economies. The countries represent a broad range of environments to identify issues that may be specific to a particular market, and the firms have been selected as significant examples of Internet retailing in industry sectors recognized as leaders in the use of the Internet.

Diffusion, Transfer and Implementation of Information Technology L. Levine, 1994-03-17
The diffusion, transfer, and implementation of information and software technology is discussed in this volume. Contributions have been sourced from academia, government, and industry specialists to afford a representation from as many perspectives as possible on research and practice. The publication is divided into 7 parts, each of the first 6 sections representing a major area of concern in current technology transfer of information. The last chapter includes the summary reports of working sessions referred to in previous sections.
