women in Bogotá and Medellín this participatory audio visual project explores displacement from the women's perspectives. The book is innovative in its collaborative writing and its combination of audio visual and textual material. It presents a methodology for remote and hybrid research advocating for more inclusive equitable and decolonising research interactions. Through three co-written chapters it contributes to themes of displacement, gender and the city as displaced women share testimonies and audio visual outputs revealing experiences of violence, conflict and aspirations for change as they rebuild their lives. This book stands out for its collaborative authorship and integration of text with audio visual material offering rich insights. It will interest researchers and practitioners working inside and outside universities who are interested in developing remote hybrid and audio visual participatory methodologies as well as those who want to understand more about displacement and the challenges of urban resettlement from women's perspectives.
