Building Tomorrow's Biomedical Workforce: Evaluation of How Evidence-Based Training Programs Align Skill Development and Career Awareness with a Broad Array of Professions Adriana Bankston,Rebekah L. Layton,Audra Van Wart,2025-08-27 Building the future STEM workforce requires robust federal investments to support the next generation of innovators as well as systemic changes to enable graduate and postdoctoral researchers to transition with confidence into the biomedical workforce This effort involves the transformation of the biomedical research enterprise and training environment at all levels but especially at the predoctoral and postdoctoral levels Innovative initiatives in education and training as well as career and professional development of biomedical trainees are necessary to build upon the robust biomedical workforce of today and create and sustain a diverse innovative and highly trained biomedical workforce of tomorrow An important aspect of supporting the biomedical workforce relates to changes within training and the research enterprise with opportunities for re imagining what STEM education should look like at different levels including providing agency for junior scientists in the field The future of the field should focus on inclusivity supporting trainees from different backgrounds and with diverse perspectives including but not limited to intersectional identities in race ethnicity gender sexual orientation first generation status and international talent in STEM This requires critical policy changes in order to support the transition of biomedical research professionals into the labor market In the Shadows Michael

Aschcroft,2022-11-08 Winner of the Best Non Fiction by a Parliamentarian category at the Parliamentary Book Awards 2023 With a Foreword by Lord Hague of Richmond The Intelligence Corps is one of the smallest and most secretive elements of the British Army It has existed in various guises since the early twentieth century but it was only formally constituted in July 1940 In this book Michael Ashcroft tells the astonishing stories of some of its most courageous and ingenious figures who have operated all over the world from the First World War to the present day Whether carrying out surveillance work on the street monitoring and analysing communications working on overseas stakeouts receiving classified information from a well placed contact or interrogating the enemy in the heat of war a hugely diverse range of people have served in the Corps often supplementing their individual professional skills with original thinking and leadership in the name of the Crown This book pays tribute to them and shows why in the words of the 1st Duke of Marlborough No war can be conducted successfully without early and good intelligence North Eastern Reporter ,2000 How Working Dads Can Excel in Their Careers
