Artificial Intelligence in Education: The Intersection of Technology and Pedagogy Peter Illic, Imogen Casebourne, Rupert Wegerif, 2024-12-02 This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective on the ways in which the careful integration of AI might enhance learning outcomes By inviting dialogue between engineering what is possible and pedagogy what might be desirable the book offers a holistic view of AI's potential for education Offering both case studies of practical implementation and pedagogically informed frameworks it focuses on appropriately integrating technology for educational benefit presenting a uniquely broad view The contributors who are both educators and technically proficient bring insights into teaching and assessment approaches research questions and technological affordances or constraints Essential for researchers educators and policymakers navigating the rapidly evolving educational technology landscape as AI becomes increasingly prevalent in every aspect of life

The Radical Case for Teaching Skim Reading in First-Year Writing Ellen C. Carillo, 2025-10-15 The Radical Case for Teaching Skim Reading in First Year Writing encourages faculty particularly in writing studies to check internal biases toward deep reading and teach skim reading in first year writing courses Written by Ellen C Carillo who has previously published on the importance of teaching deep reading this small book is a controversial prompt for further discussion and exploration Data from studies of the lived experiences of undergraduates indicate that students do not need deep reading practices in the majority of their classes across the disciplines and moreover that students succeed in their classes by skim reading Rather than imagining an idealized set of circumstances that allow for sustained deep reading as does a great deal of the scholarship on reading in writing studies The Radical Case for Teaching Skim Reading in First Year Writing argues for teaching students reading practices that will support their success in their college writing assignments rather than those strategies the field believes should support their success In our information landscape and our fragile democracy encouraging skimming as opposed to deep reading may seem like a gamble this very tendency toward the quick rather than the critical has undoubtedly contributed to the current crisis of mass misinformation However teaching students to use skim reading as a strategic tool for purposeful engagement and efficient yet thoughtful information filtering better equips them to navigate the rapidly changing information landscape and manage the fast paced flow of content from diverse media sources

Impact of Emergent Technologies on Writing Centers and Pedagogy Wang, Tingjia, 2025-05-08 Emergent technologies reshape the landscape of writing centers and pedagogical practices in higher education From AI driven writing tools to collaborative platforms and digital feedback systems these innovations transform how writing support is delivered accessed and understood Writing centers are no longer confined to physical spaces instead they evolve into hybrid or fully online environments that accommodate diverse learner needs and preferences Pedagogically instructors and tutors rethink traditional approaches integrating digital literacy multimodal composition and ethical engagement with technology into their curricula As a result emergent technologies enhance accessibility and efficiency while challenging educators to critically examine the role of technology in writing instruction and the student learning experience Impact of Emergent Technologies on Writing Centers and Pedagogy explores the impact of emergent technologies on writing centers and writing pedagogy in higher education worldwide It examines the themes concerns and challenges emerging from different writing centers and their culturally and linguistically diverse responses towards the latest transformations in writing pedagogy This book covers topics such as digital literacy policymaking and writing programs and is a useful resource for educators computer engineers academicians researchers and scientists Artificial Intelligence in Vocational Education and Training Selena

Chan,2025-05-30 This book details a series of studies across several levels of learning and vocational education and training VET discipline areas In the main the advent of natural language AI chatbots exemplified by ChatGPT has caused the educational sector to take on a defensive stance Both schools and the higher education sector are engaged in an on going arms race to prevent learners from using AI to augment assessments Therefore there has been a focus on plagiarism prevention rather than to better understand the potentialities for utilizing AI to support better learning This book explores the collaborative development and planning between educational developers learning designers and teachers to design learning activities which could leverage off various artificial intelligence AI platforms In doing support is provided for effective learning to be undertaken with an emphasis on the learning and application of critical thinking skills The studies presented through the volume describe the integration of AI literacy to support learners in evaluating the relevance and efficacy of AI tools and platforms and to understand how to best utilize these for specific purposes This book also synthesizes a framework for the introduction selection and implementation of AI into the VET curriculum It showcases recommendations and guidelines to inform the future integration of AI tools platforms into the VET curriculum Proceedings of the 5th
