The Making of China's Foreign Policy in the 21st century Suisheng Zhao,2018-02-02 This book is a study of the making of foreign policy of China a rising power in the 21st century It examines three sets of driving forces behind China s foreign policy making One is historical sources including the selective memories and reconstruction of the glorious empire with an ethnocentric world outlook and the century of humiliation at the hands of foreign imperialist powers The second set is domestic institutions and players particularly the proliferation of new party and government institutions and players such as the national security commission foreign policy think tanks media and local governments The third set is Chinese perception of power relations particularly their position in the international system and their position relations with major powers This book consists of articles from the Journal of Contemporary China      An Index to the Principal Works in Every

Department of Religious Literature Howard Malcolm,1870      Russia, China and the Revisionist Assault on the Western Liberal International Order Gerlinde Groitl,2023-05-22 This book analyzes Russian and Chinese revisionism in the face of US and Western post Cold War liberal international order building and asks why both powers have turned revisionist in the late 2000s The study develops a neoclassical realist model of international order building and contestation and posits to view revisionism as a strategic choice States go revisionist if the status quo international order threatens their vital security needs broadly defined not only as territorial security but also political economic normative and ontological and if they have the means to challenge the undesirable status quo Russia and China were both unhappy with the post Cold War international order of American designs but had to opt for accommodation in the 1990s and early 2000s strategic accommodation in the Chinese case resentful accommodation in the Russian case before revisionism became even more of a necessity and a real policy option from the late 2000s onward constructive revisionism in the Chinese case destructive revisionism in the Russian case The author calls for a policy of neo containment to counter Moscow s and Beijing s efforts to game and erode the international order      The High School Curriculum Standard, Republic of China China (Republic : 1949- ).
