Release 2.0 Esther Dyson, 1997 Welcome to Esther Dyson s provocative and visionary new book Release 2.0 A Design for Living in the Digital Age In this eagerly anticipated book Dyson an entrepreneur high tech industry analyst government adviser and the most powerful woman in the Net erati according to the New York Times Magazine presents a fascinating exploration of our new digital society She offers a detailed view of the rapidly expanding digital environment and provides a framework that will allow all of us to think intelligently about its effect on every aspect of our private and public lives Written with an insider s knowledge and a ready wit and filled with anecdotes about the movers and shakers behind both products and policy Release 2.0 provides readers with a full understanding of the new world of cyberspace and shows how it is transforming the way we work and live With a perspective at once authoritative and totally accessible she outlines the choices and questions readers face as active citizens helping to define and shape a new social contract for the digital age As Dyson explains The Net gives awesome power to individuals the ability to be heard across the world the ability to find information But with this greater ability to exercise their rights or abuse them individuals will need to exercise greater responsibility for their own actions and for the world they are creating In Release 2.0 Dyson charts the implications of the Internet for business government education communities and individuals and illuminates the fundamental conflicts in the spread of digital communication conflicts between personal privacy and society s interest in openness between security and freedom between commerce and community between government oversight and personal autonomy between flourishing creativity and the protection of intellectual property As Dyson makes clear the digital society will bring profound shifts in the balance of power between producers and consumers governments and citizens the mass media and their audiences Now the challenge and the opportunity is for citizens to resolve these conflicts and trade offs in their own public and private communities Throughout

Dyson's message is prescriptive and proactive. If we want to make the world a better place with the advent of the Internet, we have both the opportunity and the power to shape the new rules we want to live by. And to demonstrate, Dyson shares her own short list of rules for being a citizen of the Net: from Use your judgment and Ask questions to Be a producer and Always make new mistakes and invites each of us to create our own rules. Lively, informative, and always challenging, Release 2.0 will speak to all readers looking to understand and design our new digital society. Computers, Jobs, and Skills Christopher Baldry, 1988-09-30 Faith, Hope, and Charity, and the greatest of these is Charity. Hardware, Software, and Livelware are, and the greatest of these is As information technology ceased to be the prerogative of computer scientists and electronics engineers, those of us from other disciplines had to contend with the jargon which was already in vogue. We learned to live with hardware and software. We were less enthusiastic about liveware. Polite and some impolite questioning revealed that liveware was a euphemism for people. We were not amused. As one spirited participant observed, I refused to go home and tell my children that Almighty God had made liveware in His own image and likeness. People are too important to be known as anything but people. Moreover, it is the importance of people that is the dominating and recurring theme of this book by Christopher Baldry. He deals with virtually every aspect of the problems concerning men and women and their recourse to the equipment. This could well become the definitive work in the field. In addition to the details of health hazards, industrial relations, new technology, agreements, and the like, Dr. Baldry grapples with two great underpinning issues. The Journal of Electrical Workers and Operators, 1922 Working Woman, 1989 How to Get Remote Jobs: Jonathan K.
