The Matilda Principle Brad

Desmond,2022-03-30 The Matilda Principle offers a coaching approach that builds positive teams regardless of organisational culture It builds trust motivation and positivity without attracting attention and without rocking the boat In other words it is covert team building As a positive manager you want people to do more than just show up You also want people to enjoy working for you You want them to trust you to be motivated and loyal In short you want a positive team But you also know your hands are tied Decisions about better pay and conditions are made above your pay grade The HR department determines how performance reviews and job design are managed And your own boss isn't going to allow your team to work differently to other teams But what if you could create a positive team under the radar What if team building could be done without permission as an act of creative subversion In this book Brad Desmond combines his wealth of experience as a psychologist and corporate trainer with cutting edge studies into coaching and team building With The Matilda Principle you will better connect with your people and bring out their best leaving others to guess your secret
