Day In The Life Of A Construction Worker:

A Day in the Life of a Construction Worker Heather Adamson, 2004 Explains the work done by construction workers

The Construction Precariat Selim Reza, 2020-07-28 Positioned within the discourse of neoliberalism and precarious work this book draws on Guy Standing's notion of the precariat in an examination of the role of recruiting individuals as the key actors in labour recruitment and management practices that produce precarious work conditions Based on extensive empirical work on migrant construction workers and their recruiters in Dhaka the capital of Bangladesh and one of the fastest growing cities in the world it explores the ways in which exploitative employment relationships contribute to various pressures and insecurities amongst migrant workers and limit the scope for labour protection Offering new insights into the field of labour migration by unpacking the interconnections between rural urban labour migration recruitment and precarious employment The Construction Precariat conceptualises the domination of recruiters as producing hyper individualised employment and sheds light on the manner in which this relationship of domination and dependence contributes heavily both to the conditions of precariousness and to the control and exploitation of migrant workers A Day in the Life of a High-iron Worker John Harding Martin, 1985 Follows a high iron construction worker through his day as he skillfully bolts together the iron frame of a skyscraper Asianization of Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries S. Irudaya Rajan, Ginu Zacharia Oommen, 2019-11-27 This edited volume contains sixteen chapters by eminent scholars on one of the largest migration corridors in the world i.e. between South and South East Asia and the Gulf region Asia's trade and cultural contact with the Gulf date back to ancient historical times Since the 1970s the economic rise of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries owing to the discovery of oil has inspired a huge influx of migrant workers from Asia At present out of roughly 15 million expatriates in the Gulf region Asians constitute around 12 million 80 percent The chapters in this book look at migration from countries like India Sri Lanka Bangladesh Pakistan Indonesia and Philippines to the different GCC countries A few chapters also focus on migration from the India state of Kerala a state where migration to the Gulf is prominent and where remittances make up over 36 percent of the state GDP Furthermore the issues covered range from labour practices and policies citizenship and state protection human rights gender and caste as well as diaspora This book explores the multifaceted nuances of the Asia Gulf migratory corridor and unearths future prospects and strategic implications The book examines remittance behaviour changing gender roles of immigrants social spatial mobility migrant policies human rights sense of belonging and identity and perception and the interaction between nationals and non nationals The book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of demography migration and gender studies as well as social science researchers policy makers human rights lawyers civil society institutions working on migration Gulf studies programmes and centres on South Asian and Middle Eastern studies Daily Report, 1991-03 Oswaal CTET (CENTRAL TEACHER ELIGIBILITY TEST) 17
