Within the framework of the Carolingian religious and moral reform 750 900 various measures were taken which had direct or indirect implications for the experience of sexuality among the laity as well as among the religious Those and other measures also influenced the position of women both in the Church and in the world Taking the Church Fathers as points of reference this book offers a detailed analysis of the view of marriage sexuality motherhood and women as constructed in Latin edifying writings of the time i e hagiographical texts moral treatises and sermons By studying the ideas and opinions of the male religious authors of these texts the author aims to examine whether and if so to what extent the attitude of the Carolingian Church was inspired by feelings of misogyny and misogamy In writings addressing the lay public such feelings may have been hidden for pastoral reasons Therefore attention was more particularly paid to the presence of misogyny and misogamy in texts which were chiefly written for religious readers In the last analysis the overall attitude towards women related matters turns out to be different and in many respects more positive than the one found in the writings of the Fathers and of many medieval male religious authors To explain this phenomenon the author puts forward a number of socio cultural and psychological arguments De zendingsleer van Gisbertus Voetius H. A. van Andel, 1912
