De La Mettries Ghost The Story Of Decisions:

De La Mettrie's Ghost Chris Nunn,2005-10-07 This book is about how we make choices It is a compelling analysis of the nature of free will drawing together evidence from chemistry literature politics history and beyond Psychiatrist Chris Nunn elegantly explores the revolutions in medicine genetics bioethics and neuroscience spurred by Julien de la Mettrie s 300 year old tract Man the Machine Nunn concludes that a mechanistic view of the human brain though once fruitful is now moribund He proposes a powerful alternative that stories recorded in our memories throughout life are the mediators of free choice Nunn demonstrates how this original approach could reconcile the latest brain imaging results and our seemingly contradictory intuition about decision making and responsibility

De La Mettrie's Ghost C. Nunn,2005-08-30 This book is about how we make choices Drawing together evidence from 21st century chemistry to Victorian politics enlightenment philosophy Roman drama and beyond it is a compelling hunt for the nature of free will

Liberalism and the Challenge of Climate Change Christopher Shaw,2023-08-25 In this book Christopher Shaw analyses how liberalism has shaped our understanding of climate change and how liberalism is legitimated in the face of a crisis for which liberalism has no answers The language and symbolism we use to make sense of climate change arose in the post World War II liberal institutions of the West This language and symbolism in neutralising the philosophical and ideological challenge climate change poses to the legitimacy of free market liberalism has also closed off the possibility of imagining a different kind of future for humanity The book is structured around a repurposing of the guardrail concept commonly used in climate science narratives to communicate the boundary between safe and dangerous climate change Five discursive guardrails are identified which define a boundary between safe and dangerous ideas about how to respond to climate change The theoretical treatment of these issues is complemented with data from interviews with opinion formers decision makers and campaigners exploring what models of human nature and political possibilities guide their approach to the politics of climate change governance This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change liberal politics environmental communication and environmental politics and philosophy in general

Non-Representational Theory Nigel Thrift,2008-03-25 This astonishing book presents a distinctive approach to the politics of everyday life Ranging across a variety of spaces in which politics and the political unfold it questions what is meant by perception representation and practice with the aim of valuing the fugitive practices that exist on the margins of the known It revolves around three key functions It introduces the rather dispersed discussion of non representational theory to a wider audience provides the basis for an experimental rather than a representational approach to the social sciences and humanities begins the task of constructing a different kind of political genre A groundbreaking and comprehensive introduction to this key topic Thrift s outstanding work brings together further writings from a body of work that has come to be known as non representational theory This noteworthy book makes a significant contribution to the literature in this area and is essential reading for researchers and postgraduates in the fields
