Watson, Sidonie Smith, Decolonizing Trauma Studies: Trauma and Postcolonialism Sonya Andermahr, 2018-10-01 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Decolonizing Trauma Studies Trauma and Postcolonialism that was published in Humanities Legacies of the Comfort Women of World War II Margaret D. Stetz, Bonnie B. C. Oh, 2015-02-12 The stories of the former comfort women have galvanized both Asian and non Asian intellectuals working in a variety of fields Scholars of Asian history and politics feminists human rights activists documentary filmmakers visual artists and novelists have begun to address the subject of the comfort system to take up the cause of the surviving comfort women s struggles to call attention to sexual violence against women especially during wartime to consider the links among militarism racism imperialism and sexism and to include this history into 20th century political history This volume contains a cross section of responses to the issues raised by the former comfort women and their new visibility on the international stage Its focus is on how theorists historians researchers activists and artists have been preserving interpreting and disseminating the legacies of the comfort women and also drawing lessons from these The essays consider the impact and influence of the comfort women s stories on a wide variety of fields and describe how those stories are now being heard or read and used in Asian and in the West Second Skins Jay Prosser, 1998-04-07 Do we need bodies for sex Is gender in the head or in the body In Second

Skins Jay Prosser reveals the powerful drive that leads men and women literally to shed their skins and in flesh and head to cross the boundary of sex Telling their story is not merely an act that comes after the fact it s a force of its own that makes it impossible to forget that stories of identity inhabit autobiographical bodies In this stunning first extensive study of transsexual autobiography Jay Prosser examines the exchanges between body and narrative that constitute the phenomenon of transsexuality Showing how transsexuality s somatic transitions are spurred and enabled by the formal transitions of narrative Prosser uncovers a narrative tradition for transsexual bodies Sex change is a plot and thus appropriately transsexuals make for adept and absorbing authors In reading the transsexual plot through transsexuals own recounting Prosser not only gives us a new and more accurate rendition of transsexuality His book suggests transsexuality with its extraordinary conjunctions of body and narrative as an identity story that transitions across the body language divide that currently stalls poststructuralist thought The form and approach of Second Skins works to cross other important and parallel divides In addition to analyzing transsexual textual accounts the book includes some 30 photographic portraits of transsexuals poignant attempts by transsexuals to present themselves unmediated to the world except by the camera And the author does not shy from exposure himself Interjecting the personal into his theoretical discussion and close textual work throughout the book Prosser reads and writes his own body his purpose in that stylistic crossing to stake out transsexuality and hence this very book as his own body s narrative Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First

Kim Rapp-Hanretta, 1997 Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A. Foster, 1995-11-14 Until now there hasn t been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U S and Sally Potter U K Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women s Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women s cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production Ariel, 2001-07 The Intimate Empire Gillian Whitlock, 2000 The Intimate Empire explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings Postcolonial Slavery Charlotte Baker, Jennifer Jahn, 2008 This collection of eight essays by research students and academics from the UK France Germany and the USA examining different forms and manifestations of postcolonial slavery underlines the significance of the year 2007 marking the bicentennial anniversary of the passage of the British law banning the slave trade Slavery and its legacies galvanized a diachronic series of ethnic crossings and transformations that engendered new and complex patterns of crosscultural contact And the importance of communities of runaway slaves can scarcely be overstated as a symbol of an insistent black resistance and self affirmation But in bringing the material realities of slavery to the forefront of the imagination this volume also highlights the marginalization of British and French colonial practices in institutionalized frameworks of historical knowledge Actively contesting the related traumas of transplantation the middle passage and the fracturing of the collective memory and drawing actively on a wide range of approaches and perspectives this collection seeks to reinscribe a material historical consciousness of slavery and its legacies through a strategic interaction between history subjectivity and representation H Adlai Murdoch University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign
