Dead Countries Of The 19th And The 20th Centuries Aden To Zululand:

Dead Countries of the Nineteenth and the Twentieth Centuries Les Harding,1998 Organized as a series of entries for each dead country and arranged alphabetically under fifteen broad geographical headings provides wonderfully detailed summaries of the history of the dead countries that fill in gaps and expose the hidden histories of many geographic locations throughout the world

Postcards Lydia Pyne,2021-10-13 A global exploration of postcards as artifacts at the intersection of history science technology art and culture Postcards are usually associated with banal holiday pleasantries but they are made possible by sophisticated industries and institutions from printers to postal services When they were invented postcards established what is now taken for granted in modern times the ability to send and receive messages around the world easily and inexpensively Fundamentally they are about creating personal connections links between people places and beliefs Lydia Pyne examines postcards on a global scale to understand them as artifacts that are at the intersection of history science technology art and culture In doing so she shows how postcards were the first global social network and also here in the twenty first century how postcards are not yet extinct
