

It was a case of mind over murder

Detective Wyatt Lockhart had a kind name for it: shock. But after the bomb exploded in a Washington supermarket, psychologist Claire Boland seriously wondered if she were losing her mind.

Though the victim's face had been destroyed, Claire positively identified him as her patient. Not only was Claire's patient alive—but he clearly didn't know her.

Claire's need to restore the predictable logic of her universe brought love, as well as the greatest challenge of her career. It also brought her into the orbit of a ruthless adversary with a penchant for deadly mind games.
