Deadly Companions:

Deadly Companions Nelson C. Nye, 1988 Deadly Companions Nelson C. Nye, Nye, 1989-10-01 Peckinpah Today Michael Bliss, 2012-06-19 Written exclusively for this collection by today's leading Peckinpah critics the nine essays in Peckinpah Today explore the body of work of one of America's most important filmmakers revealing new insights into his artistic process and the development of his lasting themes Edited by Michael Bliss this book provides groundbreaking criticism of Peckinpah's work by illuminating new sources from modified screenplay documents to interviews with screenplay writers and editors Included is a rare interview with A S Fleischman author of the screenplay for The Deadly Companions the film that launched Peckinpah's career in feature films The collection also contains essays by scholar Stephen Prince and Paul Seydor editor of the controversial special edition of Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid In his essay on Straw Dogs film critic Michael Sragow reveals how Peckinpah and co-scriptwriter David Zelag Goodman transformed a pulp novel into a powerful film The final essay of the collection surveys Peckinpah's career showing the dark turn that the filmmaker's artistic path took between his first and last films This comprehensive approach reinforces the book's dawn to dusk approach resulting in a fascinating picture of a great filmmaker's work Sam Peckinpah's Feature Films Bernard F. Dukore, 1999 One of the greatest film directors America has produced Sam Peckinpah revolutionized the way movies were made In this detailed and insightful study Bernard F Dukore examines Peckinpah's fourteen feature films as a coherent body of work He investigates the director's virtuosic editing techniques thematic preoccupations that persist from his earliest to his last films and the structure of his dramatic depiction of violence He also addresses Peckinpah's cognizance of existentialism and the substantial traces this interest has left in the films At the heart of Dukore's study is an extensive and detailed examination of Peckinpah's distinctive editing techniques Focusing on representative sequences including the breakout from the bank and the final battle in The Wild Bunch the half hour siege that concludes Straw Dogs the killing of the title characters of Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid and combat sequences in Cross of Iron Dukore provides a shot by shot analysis that illuminates Peckinpah's mastery of pacing and mood Sam Peckinpah's Feature Films demonstrates that Peckinpah's genius as a director and editor marks not only The Wild Bunch Straw Dogs and other classics but also his lesser known feature films even those that suffered substantial cuts at the hands of studio producers Dukore's organic approach to the feature films reveals a highly unified body of work that remains a pointed commentary on power violence affection and moral values Dancing with Disaster Kate Rigby, 2015-03-06 The calamitous impacts of climate change that are beginning to be felt around the world today expose the inextricability of human and natural histories Arguing for a more complex account of such calamities Kate Rigby examines a variety of past disasters from the Black Death of the Middle Ages to the mega hurricanes of the twenty first century revealing the dynamic interaction of diverse human and nonhuman factors in their causation unfolding and aftermath Focusing on the link between the ways disasters are framed by the stories told about them and how people tend to respond to them in practice Rigby also shows how works of narrative fiction invite ethical reflection on human relations with one another with our often unruly earthly environs and with other species in the face of eco catastrophe In its investigation of an array of authors from the Romantic period to the present including Heinrich von Kleist Mary Shelley Theodor Storm Colin Thiele and Alexis Wright Dancing with Disaster demonstrates the importance of the environmental humanities in the development of more creative compassionate ecologically oriented and socially just responses to the perils and possibilities of the Anthropocene Under the Sign of Nature Explorations in Ecocriticism Deadly Companions Nelson Coral Nye,1987

Ebola Dorothy H. Crawford,2016-11-10 First discovered in 1976 and long regarded as an easily manageable virus affecting isolated rural communities Ebola rocketed to world prominence in 2014 as a deadly epidemic swept through Guinea Sierra Leone and Liberia in West Africa Thousands of people died as the extraordinarily contagious disease spread rapidly from villages to urban centres Initial quarantine responses proved often too little and too late and the medical infrastructure of the affected countries struggled to cope By August 2014 several months after the start of the outbreak the WHO declared the epidemic a public health emergency and international aid teams and volunteers began to pour in But halting the epidemic proved to be hugely challenging not only in terms of the practicalities of dealing with the sheer numbers of patients carrying the highly infectious virus but in dealing with social and cultural barriers The author Dorothy Crawford visited Sierra Leone while the epidemic was ongoing and met with those on the frontline in the fight against the virus In Ebola Crawford combines personal accounts from these brave medical workers with the latest scientific reports to tell the story of the epidemic as it unfolded and how it has changed our understanding of the virus She looks at its origin and spread the international response and its devastating legacy to the health of those living in the three worst affected countries She describes the efforts to prevent international spread the treatment options for Ebola including the drug and vaccine trials that eventually got underway in 2015 and the sensitive issue of running trials of experimental therapies during a lethal epidemic Our understanding of the Ebola virus continues to develop as long term health problems and complications following recovery from the disease are being identified Epidemics of Ebola or other dangerous microbes will continue to threaten the world regularly Already concerns have been raised by the possible impact of the Zika virus What lessons have been learnt from Ebola How asks Crawford might we prevent a repeat of the awful suffering seen in 2014 16 Western Film Highlights Henryk Hoffmann,2015-07-11 Westerns may have had their heyday but they remain popular The greatest films from 1914 when The Squaw Man and The Virginian were among the genre's best through 2001 when American Outlaws and Texas Rangers were tops are the subject of this work For each year the author names the outstanding western films in the following categories picture screenplay original and adaptation direction cinematography music male and female leading roles and male and female supporting roles Also for each year the author lists the westerns that received Academy Award nominations and those that won makes note of the births and deaths of notable actors directors producers composers cinematographers authors and other such personalities and describes the genre's significant achievements Box Office, 1962 New Westers Michael L. Johnson, 1996 These New Westers Johnson reveals line dance and two step listen to Garth Brooks and George Strait drink beer from long neck bottles wear clothes ordered from Sheplers watch rodeo on ESPN play Wild West arcade games eat fajitas and tacos in stuccoed Mexican cafes collect Western art and Native American crafts and vacation in and move to the West New Westers rewrite the history and biography of the West They reimagine the West in Cowboy sagas and poetry Native American novels Mexican American drama nature writing revisionist films eclectic visual artwork and neo traditional music They flock to movies like Thelma and Louise Unforgiven and Dances with Wolves watch mini series like Lonesome Dove and read bestsellers like The Crossing and All The Pretty Horses New Westers are men and women who may or may not have ever hitched up a horse but who crave connection with the West At the end of a century of urbanization technological change and cultural confusion they seek a more natural home a fuller and wider sense of place and a deeper and more colorful personal identity They also want to revive the dream of the mythic West but on different terms They overrun the Old West and yet strive to preserve it raising troubling new concerns about the differences between the mythic and the real between traditional and contemporary cultural influences Crucified Heroes Terence Butler, 1979 Sam Peckinpah Doug McKinney, 1979 Discusses films such as The deadly companions Ride the high country Major Dundee Noon wine The wild bunch The ballad of Cable Hogue Straw dogs Junior Bonner The getaway Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid Bring me the head of Alfredo Garcia The killer elite Cross of iron Convoy and others Chemistry and Industry, 2008
