Deadly Innocence Scott Burnside, Alan Cairns, 2008-10-22 Karla and Paul seemed like the picture perfect newlyweds but were really a pair of vicious killers who abducted sexually tortured and murdered innocent schoolgirls videotaping their evil acts in suburban Niagara Falls Billed as the crime of the century in Canada this case has received a great deal of media coverage on both sides of the border Includes eight pages of photos Deadly Innocence Alan Cairns, Scott Burnside, 1995 Karla and Paul seemed like the picture perfect newlyweds but were really a pair of vicious killers who abducted sexually tortured and murdered innocent schoolgirls videotaping their evil acts in suburban Niagara Falls Billed as the crime of the century in Canada this case has received a great deal of media coverage on both sides of the border Includes eight pages of photos Serial Murder and Media Circuses Dirk C. Gibson, 2006-07-30 The Axman of New Orleans specialized in killing grocers of Italian descent in the 1910s apparently to promote jazz music Dorothea Puente was a little old landlady who murdered her tenants but kept cashing their government checks The Manson Family terrorized California in the 1960s as did the Hillside Stranglers a decade later Twelve serial murder cases occurring in eight decades between the 1890s and 1990s had one thing in common significant presence of the mass media This book examines these specific cases of serial murder and the way the media became involved in the investigations and trials of each Gibson argues that the American media plays a multidimensional and integral role in serial killings and their investigation and that this role is not generally a positive one Serial murder cases motivate the media in unfortunate ways and the result is that even typically respectable media organizations can be involved in such things as document theft or in interfering with the capture of serial murderers on the run This link between multiple murderers and mass communication is not accidental or coincidental rather the relationship between the press and serial killers is one of extraordinary importance to both parties Gibson examines the role of the media in serial murder cases the body of knowledge on serial murder as seen through the lens of mass communication the effectiveness of law enforcement responses to serial murderers and how they might be improved if the mass communication influence was better understood the magnitude of the serial murder problem and the interaction between the media the killers and serial murder investigations Specific examples and numerous quotes are provided throughout to illustrate this strange and detrimental relationship between media and serial murderers The International Sourcebook on Capital Punishment Center for Capital Punishment Studies, London, 1997 An indispensable reference and research tool for capital punishment scholars Challenging Women's Orthodoxies in the Context of Faith Susan Frank Parsons, 2019-07-31 This title was first published in 2000 Most of the papers in this volume were given at a day conference held at Heythrop College aimed at discussing challenging women's orthodoxies in the context of faith The book acts as an indication that gender matters in the understanding and living of faith The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver, 2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther

Deadly Innocent Magdel Roets,2018-12-14 Some women learn from their mistakes some don t Penelope married a man who first charmed her then abused her Fear killed the love she had for him Then fear branched off into hatred Should she fight back should she try to escape When in desperation fear and hatred collided it produced a way out but at a cost After many years the price had been paid Penny was offered happiness from the only man who really deeply loved her Could she return this love Could fondness grow into the love this man deserved Excitement and pleasure versus stability Which would produce the life she craved She made her choice but had nagging doubts If only she could manage her love life the way she conducted her business Never seeing what was coming she walked into the same trap This time too late to get rescued
