Day With Picasso:

A Day with Picasso Billy Kluver, 1999-02-18 In 1978 while collecting documentary photographs of the artists community in Montparnasse from the first decades of the century Billy Kl ver discovered that some previously unassociated photographs fell into significant groupings One group in particular showing Picasso Max Jacob Mo se Kisling Modigliani and others at the Caf de la Rotonde and on Boulevard du Montparnasse all seemed to have been taken on the same day The people were wearing the same clothes in each shot and had the same accessories Their ties were knotted the same way and their collars had the same wrinkles A total of twenty four photographs four rolls of film with six photographs each were eventually found With the challenge of identifying the date photographer and circumstances Kl ver embarked on an inquiry that would illuminate the minute texture of that time and place Biographical research into the subjects lives led Kl ver to focus on the summer of 1916 as the likely time the photos were taken He then measured buildings and plotted angles and lengths of shadows in the photographs to narrow the time frame to a spread of three weeks Further investigation eventually allowed Kl ver to identify the photographer as Jean Cocteau and to determine the day that Cocteau had taken the photographs August 12 1916 A computer printout of the sun s positions on that date obtained from the Bureau des Longitudes together with the length of the shadows enabled Klver to calculate the time of day of each photograph and thus to put them in proper sequence In a tour de force of art historical research Kl ver then reconstructed a scenario of the events of the four hours depicted in the photographs With evocative attention to detail noting when Picasso is no longer carrying an envelope or Max Jacob has acquired a decoration in his lapel Kl ver recreates a single afternoon in the lives of Picasso and friends a group of remarkable people in early twentieth century Paris Besides the central portfolio of photographs by Cocteau the book contains additional photographs and drawings short biographies of all the subjects and a historical section on the events and activities in the Paris art world at the time

A Day with Picasso Billy Kluver, 2001-05 In 1978 while collecting documentary photographs of the artists community in Montparnasse from the first decades of the century Billy Klnver discovered that some previously unassociated photographs fell into significant groupings One group in particular showing Picasso Max Jacob Monse Kisling Modigliani and others at the Caft de la Rotonde and on Boulevard du Montparnasse all seemed to have been taken on the same day The people were wearing the same clothes in each shot and had the same accessories Their ties were knotted the same way and their collars had the same wrinkles A total of twenty four photographs four rolls of film with six photographs each were eventually found With the challenge of identifying the date photographer and circumstances Klnver embarked on an inquiry that would illuminate the minute texture of that time and place Biographical research into the subjects lives led Klnver to focus on the summer of 1916 as the likely time the photos were taken He then measured buildings and plotted angles and lengths of shadows in the photographs to narrow the time frame to a spread of three weeks Further investigation eventually allowed Klnver to identify the photographer as Jean Cocteau and to determine the day that Cocteau had taken the photographs August 12 1916 A computer printout of the sun's positions on that date obtained from the Bureau des Longitudes together with the length of the shadows enabled Klnver to calculate the time of day of each photograph and thus to put them in proper sequence In a tour de force of art historical research Klnver then reconstructed a scenario of the events of the four hours depicted in the photographs With evocative attention to detail noting when Picasso is no longer carrying an envelope or Max Jacob has acquired a decoration in his lapel Klnver recreates a single afternoon in the lives of Picasso and friends a group of remarkable people in early twentieth century Paris Besides the central portfolio of photographs by Cocteau the book contains additional photographs and drawings short biographies of all the subjects and a historical section on the events and activities in the Paris art world at the time

Looking for Picasso In All the Wrong Places Ivan Millard "Googie" Parks Jr., 2023-06-13 About the Book Looking for Picasso in All the Wrong Places by retired art dealer Ivan Googie Parks Jr is a memoir of how a Chicago cowboy became an art dealer He shares his unique experiences of how his Chicagoland Cowboy upbringing prepared him to solve modern art's oldest secret For the first time ever read the amazing story of a young horseman's inadvertent discovery that paralleled the answers to Picasso's unasked questions for the sources of the Master's unknown mysterious models Parks reveals Picasso's own Communistic origins he claims to have discovered being used to compare to the murder scenes from Chicago connected events He presents a collection of fifty three photographs from his Cowboy life which he claims accidentally helped him explain what the seemingly secret subjects Picasso selected for the unknown gifts for the 1968 347 Suite Gravures exhibit were developed from accrual events taken place as Picasso drew the subjects from newspaper accounts as they happened A young Parks uses his early Chicago cowboy experiences to help illuminate the Equine characters populating the selected sequenced forty eight serials constructed from Picasso's artwork into Ivan's arranged expose He uses his uniquely devised new linking process for creating a devastating revelation in a new serialization technique which is formulated while finding out Picasso has borrowed serial events from Chicago's historical past His findings lead to the beginning of a better understanding of Picasso's formerly mysterious Cubistic World as he struck a lucky deal to save his Rock n Roll Dude Ranch while selling art in the Merrill Chase Chicagoland Art Gallery chain Ivan reveals the explicit reasons of how he helped remove the Erotic Suite from the 347 Series Gravures Exhibit while discovering a surprise Chicago connection illustrating two Democratic Presidential Conventions of 1960 and 1968 silently selected by Picasso You will marvel as he discusses the reasons explaining the heretofore unknown why Picasso gave the Sculpture Puzzle the Bizarre Etching Exhibit and the 100 000 Commission Check to the Art Institute of Chicago Parks also divulges a curious set of parallel dimensions between the Daley Plaza Sculpture the Guernica Mural and a mock up of a St Valentine's Day Crime Scene Measurement Recreation which has never been examined or explored publicly before He also explores the timely similarities in the recreations from the April 4 1968 murder scene used by Picasso for his own version of the day before and the day of the Memphis Motel Balcony Crime Scene about the murder of Dr Martin L King Jr You will marvel at the intricate collection of evidence linking Picasso imagery to Capone Era Chicago Beer Wars events He further connects other similar historical sneak attack and matching alibi models for the St Valentine s murders and aligns them with selected communist conflicts with fascist leaders matching Picasso Eras which Ivan implicates Picasso in stealing Chicago Connections for his seemingly unknown art subjects You ll decide if the evidence in Parks s Crazy Chicago Cowboy Discovery Trail proves his findings or if Parks twisted Picasso s imagery into his own new Secret Chicago Connections Either way the events took place just before Picasso drew his seemingly unconnected version of the infamous imagery
