Daydream Houses of Los Angeles Charles Jencks, 1978 An Architectural Guidebook to Los Angeles Robert Winter, 2009-09 Known as the bible to Los Angeles architecture scholars and enthusiasts Robert Winter and David Gebhard's groundbreaking guide to architecture in the greater Los Angeles area is updated and revised once again From Art Deco to Beaux Arts Spanish Colonial to Mission Revival Winter discusses an impressive variety of architectural styles in this popular guide that he co authored with the late David Gebhard New buildings and sites have been added along with all new photography Considered the most thorough L A architecture guide ever written this new edition features the best of the past and present from Charles and Henry Greene's Gamble House to Frank Gehry's Disney Philharmonic Hall This was and is again a must have guide to a diverse and architecturally rich area Robert Winter is a recognized architectural historian who lives in Los Angeles and has led architectural tours through the Los Angeles area since 1965 He is a professor at Occidental College in Los Angeles Landscapes of Desire William Alexander McClung, 2002-05-31 An imaginative and provocative interpretation of the meaning of Los Angeles carefully thought out and beautifully written Robert Winter editor of Toward a Simpler Way of Life The Arts and Crafts Architects of California McClung's sharp eye and his ability to be both critic and analyst combine to make this a book of real timeliness It is unusual and it is smart William Deverell author of Railroad Crossing Californians and the Railroad 1850 1910 Trousdale Estates Steven M. Price, 2017-01-10 Filled with beautiful vivid photographs Trousdale is the definitive history of the architecture and design that defined both Beverly Hills and the ultimate American Dream Trousdale Estates is a 410 acre enclave of large luxurious homes in Beverly Hills California Primarily developed in the 1950s and 60s it quickly became famous for its concentration of celebrity residents and the unrestrained extravagance of its midcentury modern architecture Often working with unlimited budgets these designers created sprawling elegant backdrops for the ultimate expression of the American Dream in the mid to late twentieth century In Trousdale Price explores the architectural backgrounds details and floor plans of the amazing homes giving readers an inside view of the world famous Beverly Hills style Lavish new photography is interspersed with archival and historic images illustrating the glamour of Trousdale both then and now Some of the architects of Trousdale include Lloyd Wright Wallace Neff Paul R Williams Harold Levitt and A Quincy Jones High Life Matthew Lasner, 2023-04-04 The first comprehensive architectural and cultural history of condominium and cooperative housing in twentieth century America Today one in five homeowners in American cities and suburbs lives in a multifamily home rather than a single family house As the American dream evolves precipitated by rising real estate prices and a renewed interest in urban living many predict that condos will become the predominant form of housing in the twenty first century In this unprecedented study Matthew Gordon Lasner explores the history of co owned multifamily housing in the United States from New York City's first co op in 1881 to contemporary condominium and townhouse complexes coast to coast Lasner explains the complicated social economic and political factors that have increased demand for this way of living situating the trend within the larger housing market and broad shifts in residential architecture and family life He contrasts the prevalence and popularity of condos townhouses and other privately governed communities with their ambiguous economic legal and social standing as well as their striking absence from urban and architectural history Landscapes of Power Sharon Zukin,1993-03-12 The momentous changes which are transforming American life call for a new exploration of the economic and cultural landscape In this book Sharon Zukin links our ever expanding need to consume with two fundamental shifts places of production have given way to spaces for services and paperwork and the competitive edge has moved from industrial to cultural capital From the steel mills of the Rust Belt to the sterile malls of suburbia to the gentrified urban centers of our largest cities the creative destruction of our economy a process by which a way of life is both lost and gained results in a dramatically different landscape of economic power Sharon Zukin probes the depth and diversity of this restructuring in a series of portraits of changed or changing American places Beginning at River Rouge Henry Ford s industrial complex in Dearborn Michigan and ending at Disney World Zukin demonstrates how powerful interests shape the spaces we inhabit Among the landscapes she examines are steeltowns in West Virginia and Michigan affluent corporate suburbs in Westchester County gentrified areas of lower Manhattan and theme parks in Florida and California In each of these case studies new strategies of investment and employment are filtered through existing institutions experience in both production and consumption and represented in material products aesthetic forms and new perceptions of space and time The current transformation differs from those of the past in that individuals and institutions now have far greater power to alter the course of change making the creative destruction of landscape the most important cultural product of our time Zukin s eclectic inquiry into the parameters of social action and the emergence of new cultural forms defines the interdisciplinary frontier where sociology geography economics and urban and cultural studies meet Los Angeles in Fiction David M.
