Vives: De Institutione Feminae Christianae Juan Luis Vives, 1987 De institutione feminae Christianae Juan Luis Vives, The Education of a Christian Woman Juan Luis Vives, 2007-11-01 From meetings and conversation with men love affairs arise In the midst of pleasures banquets dances laughter and self indulgence Venus and her son Cupid reign supreme Poor young girl if you emerge from these encounters a captive prey How much better it would have been to remain at home or to have broken a leg of the body rather than of the mind So wrote the sixteenth century Spanish humanist Juan Luis Vives in a famous work dedicated to Henry VIII's daughter Princess Mary but intended for a wider audience interested in the education of women Praised by Erasmus and Thomas More Vives advocated education for all women regardless of social class and ability From childhood through adolescence to marriage and widowhood this manual offers practical advice as well as philosophical meditation and was recognized soon after publication in 1524 as the most authoritative pronouncement on the universal education of women Arguing that women were intellectually equal if not superior to men Vives stressed intellectual companionship in marriage over procreation and moved beyond the private sphere to show how women's progress was essential for the good of society and state [Selected Works of J.L. Chariots of Ladies casts light on a neglected dimension of encounter and exchange in Iberia from the late fourteenth to the mid sixteenth centuries The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe Amanda L. Capern,2019-10-30 The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe is a comprehensive and ground breaking survey of the lives of women in early modern Europe between 1450 and 1750 Covering a period of dramatic political and cultural change the book challenges the current contours and chronologies of European history by observing them through the lens of female experience The collaborative research of this book covers four themes the affective world practical knowledge for life politics and religion arts science and humanities These themes are interwoven through the chapters which encompass all areas of women s lives sexuality emotions health and wellbeing educational attainment litigation and the practical and leisured application of knowledge skills and artistry from medicine to theology The intellectual lives of women through reading and writing and their spirituality and engagement with the material world are also explored So too is the sheer energy of female work including farming and manufacture skilled craft and artwork theatrical work and scientific enquiry The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe revises the chronological and ideological parameters of early modern European history by opening the reader s eyes to an exciting age of female productivity social engagement and political activism across European and transatlantic boundaries It is essential reading for students and researchers of early modern history the history of women and gender studies The Gender Vendors A. L. Jones,2014-08-26 Among numerous ancient Western tropes about gender and procreation the seed and the soil is arguably the oldest most potent and most invisible in its apparent naturalness The Gender Vendors denaturalizes this proto theory of procreation and deconstructs its contemporary legacy As metaphor for gender and procreation seed and soil constructs the father as the sole generating parent and the mother as nurturing medium like soil for the man s seed child In other words men give life women merely give birth The Gender Vendors examines seed and soil in the context of the psychology of gender honor and chastity codes female genital mutilation the taboo on male femininity femiphobia the fear of being feminine or feminized sexual violence institutionalized abuse the early modern witch hunts the medicalization and criminalization of gender nonconformity and campaigns against women s rights The examination is structured around particular watersheds in the history of seed and soil for example Genesis ancient Greece early Christianity the medieval Church the early modern European witch hunts and the campaigns of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries against women s suffrage and education The neglected story of seed and soil matters to everyone who cares about gender equality and why it is taking so long to achieve J.L. Vives: De Subventionem Pauperum sive De Humanis Necessitatibus, Libri II Juan Luis Vives,2022-06-20 This work by the Spanish humanist and philosopher Juan Luis Vives is the first tract of its kind in the Western world to treat the problem of urban poverty and propose concrete suggestions for a policy of social legislation The treatise published in 1526 is dedicated to the civil authorities of Bruges and deals specifically with the problems of that city but with potential universal application Vives calls upon the wealthy to share their blessings with those less fortunate emphasizing that possessions are not given to us for our own use only but to share them with our neighbour The reader will often find Vives reflections and solutions surprisingly modern The book includes an edition of the Latin text and an English translation The Educational Psychology of Juan Luis Vives Walter Aloysius Daly, 1924
