Dead Are With Us:

Into the Dark Allison DuBois, 2015-10-02 Into the Dark is a first hand account of what happens to us when we die Allison DuBois walks her readers through death as described by those who live again Although death may seem like a dark quiet empty place to be once you go into the dark you will find out that death has a lot of color and a pulse Through her ability to communicate directly with the dead Allison DuBois relays the wants desires and experiences of the deceased The dead have their own world but it is important to them to also remain a part of ours People often fear death In order to begin removing this fear Allison shows the face of death giving a bird s eye view of the beauty of the afterlife through her experiences as well as the encounters of the dead When a person dies the living go through stages of grief the dead go through those with us so they can do their own healing and eventually become re connected with us It is important to learn how to connect personally with the deceased so that we can receive their messages when we are ready This is a glimpse through the eyes of those who are looking back at us through the veil Many concrete examples are provided of individuals who have experienced loss and have experienced death Reading the successes and regrets that the dead have will help us all begin to create our version of heaven now
