Deadlier than the Male Trina Beckett, 2018-11-30 How much influence did notable wives have on the leading commanders in British military history These women tend to be disregarded but as Trina Beckett demonstrates in this revealing and thought provoking study their influence has often been profound Taking examples from the eighteenth century to the Second World War she uncovers a hidden dimension in the rise to prominence of some of Britains most famous soldiers and documents a series of fascinating relationships between powerful men and equally powerful women Sarah Churchill Duchess of Marlborough and Dorothy Countess Haig are perhaps the most famous examples of wives who played important roles in their husbands brilliant careers However sometimes the lives of leading commanders would be hindered as well as helped by their wives Paulina Wood proved such a disastrous hostess that she almost destroyed the career of Sir Evelyn Wood and Lord Roberts reputation for jobbery owed much to his wife Noras constant interference in appointments Trina Becketts perceptive and absorbing case studies reveal much about the women whose lives she portrays and the contribution they made to their distinguished husbands military careers Deadlier Than the Male Jessica Mann, 1981
