collection considers how images have shaped the meanings and experiences of citizenship from the colonial era through periods of mass global migration to contemporary geopolitical change and debates on Indigenous rights and recognition Contributors explore the role visual culture has played in imagining or interrogating ideas about belonging rights civic identity and the ideal citizen in societies that continue to grapple with their settler colonial origins They ask how image making may be used to negotiate or contest the limits of citizenship whether as a legal or as an imagined cultural category and the role of visual culture in building relationships between citizens non citizens and the state This collection will provide a new and compelling history of citizenship and the ways it has been defined not only by historicising citizenship s visual imagery but by exploring its present effects and legacies Neural Information Processing Mufti Mahmud,Maryam Doborjeh,Kevin Wong,Andrew Chi Sing Leung,Zohreh Doborjeh,M.
