A Critical Study of Some of the Recurring Themes in the Novels of E.M. Forster Ted Eugene Boyle, 1958 Modern American Literature Claudio Gorlier, 2001 Modern American Literature Is Too Vast And Varied To Be Studied Between The Covers Of A Single Book Although Limited By Space A Sincere Effort Has Been Made In This Anthology To Put Together Deeply Perceptive Articles On Some Of The Most Influential And Representative American Authors And Literary Works Among The Writers Studied Here Are Henry David Thoreau Walt Whitman Earnest Hemingway Thomas Wolfe Toni Morrison

Harold Robbins Eugene O'Neill and Edward Albee who represent most of the important genres and trends in American literature today. Thoreau and Whitman have been included not because they are modern but because of their immense contribution to the evolution of the American thought and literature. The novels and plays specially focussed upon are The Old Man and the Sea, Look Homeward Angel, The Bluest Eye, Sula, Where Love Has Gone, Desire Under the Elms, A Streetcar Named Desire, A Delicate Balance and Tiny Alice. It is earnestly hoped that teachers, research students and scholars interested in American literature will find this book immensely useful.

Six Modern British Novelists George Stade, 1974. This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo, Egypt. Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class, they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination. How can this paradox be explained? An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle, as accommodating protest. These women, most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy, are ambivalent about working outside the home, considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits. At the same time, they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity. The new veiling expresses women's protest against this. MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence. Studies in English Literature, 1974.

Edward Morgan Forster Laurence Brander, 1970. The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950. George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07. More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957, to add materials of the following decade, to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available, and to re-shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries.

E.M. Forster, 1970. E.M. Forster, Our Permanent Contemporary Peter James Malcolm Scott, 1984.
