The Early Eighteenth Century, 1700-1740 Bonamy Dobrée, 1990      Down and Out in Eighteenth-Century London Tim Hitchcock, 2004-01-01 London in the eighteenth century was the greatest city in the world It was a magnet that drew men and women from the rest of England in huge numbers For a few the streets were paved with gold but for the majority it was a harsh world with little guarantee of money or food For the poor and destitute London's streets offered little more than the barest living Yet men women and children found a great variety of ways to eke out their existence sweeping roads selling matches singing ballads and performing all sorts of menial labor Many of these activities apart from the direct begging of the disabled depended on an appeal to charity but one often mixed with threats and promises Down and Out in Eighteenth Century London provides a remarkable insight into the lives of Londoners for all of whom the demands of charity and begging were part of their everyday world      Stylistic Studies of Literature Masahiro Hori, Tomoji Tabata, Sadahiro Kumamoto, 2009 This volume reflects the scholarly interests and achievements of Professor Hiroyuki Ito in whose honour it was conceived It is a collection of papers on the stylistics of English and American literature written by scholars in Japan A wide range of approaches from traditional philological analysis to innovative new directions such as corpus stylistics and narratology are found in this book addressing literary works as varied as the writings of Chaucer Shakespeare Defoe Austen Dickens and Mark Twain with Irish folktales and English language Haiku This volume also offers an overview of the state of the art in stylistic studies of English literature in Japan The papers have been divided into four parts according to manner of approach Philological Approaches Corpus Stylistics Narratology and Literary Stylistics      Women and Literary History Katherine Binhammer, Jeanne Wood, 2003-05 The essays provide new research into women's literary history from the late seventeenth century to the Modernist period covering topics such as women's science and anti slavery writing midwifery women and the novel and lesbian literary history Essays discuss the writing of Jane Sharp Jane Barker Anne Finch Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning Harriet Jacob Phebe Lankester Pauline Johnson May Sinclair Amy Levy Edith Ellis and Amy Wilson Carmichael BOOK JACKET      English Drama 1586-1642 G. K. Hunter, 1997 Shakespeare is usually set apart from his contemporaries in kind no less than quality This book sees Elizabethan drama as drawn together by a shared need to deal with contradictory pressures from heterogeneous audiences censorious authorities profit driven managers and authors looking for classic status and social esteem The power of poetry gives these contradictory purposes an intensity and scope that speaks directly to our own motives aspirations and evasions But this connection must be shallow if we do not face the strangeness as well as the accessibility of this repertory Starting from texts rather than systems experience rather than explanation Hunter argues that only by treating the unfamiliar and even the distasteful with equal seriousness can we allow the familiar in Shakespeare its historical separateness as well as its imaginative intimacy      Writers of the Early Twentieth Century John Innes Mackintosh Stewart, 1990 This book is intended for students of English literature at A level and above
