Quicklet on Lisa Petrilli's The Introvert's Guide to Success in Business and Leadership

Kelly Cooper, 2012-02-24

ABOUT THE BOOK We have the power to change the world with our ideas and we have the power to change the lives of others through our quiet leadership and steadfast approach Introverts are idea people We are great listeners and friends and form meaningful relationships in our personal and professional lives That s the good news The flip side is that we often struggle with two additional i words invisible and interrupted We attempt to outpace our work peers with diligence optimism and commitment And we are somewhat surprised to see coworkers earning praise for the visible implementation step of a plan for which we seeded the initial idea gaining recognition for leadership of a team where we contributed most or all of the behind the scenes work and moving up the organization while we are acknowledged in our supporting role

Supporting Really The Introvert s Guide to Success in Business and Leadership offers author Lisa Petrilli s experience and advice for overcoming some of the obstacles faced by introverts in networking interviewing leading and excelling in leadership positions Lisa discusses how introverted and extroverted leaders are both great in leadership and in business however introverts may struggle to reach the executive level In part introverts are less comfortable seeking the visibility required for company wide recognition In part discomfort with networking effectively and an uneasiness in asking for new opportunities creates fewer opportunities for recognition
