The Gender Bias Dr Sabrina Cohen-Hatton, 2023-03-02 Two people are firefighters and do the same job When one is asked what they do for a living their response is met with That's amazing you are so brave while the other is asked Isn't that dangerous Aren't you scared What about your kids Can you guess the difference between the two These comments are the reality for Dr Sabrina Cohen Hatton and many other women at work and in life Gender biases stop women from succeeding but why are certain qualities associated with success viewed less favourably for women After leaving home at 15 going through extreme personal adversity and a period of homelessness Sabrina gained first hand experience of the hurdles women face to become successful In The Gender Bias she explores the everyday prejudices women experience through the prism of success From leadership to risk taking perception and failure Sabrina exposes the invisible barriers that are holding women back Through an analysis of studies and data Sabrina unpicks why women are judged differently examines why that matters and offers practical solutions on how we can tackle our biases and overcome sustained systems

Masculinity, Marriage and Rural Men in Urban China Sarah Gosper, 2024-12-31 This book explores the conjuncture and interrelationship between three so called crises facing Chinese society a crisis of marriage a crisis of masculinity and a crisis of mobility Based on sustained ethnographic research on unmarried lower class rural men from two distinct social and class categories namely migrant workers employed in the food delivery and express mail delivery industries and tertiary educated white collar professionals the book reveals how the increasing socio economic precarity of rural men and their largely unrealised desires to marry and have children demonstrates a fundamental reconfiguration of Chinese masculinity and mobility in urban China and the social impact on central Chinese institutions The book also reveals the futile efforts to fulfil hegemonic models of masculinity in contemporary China and addresses the heterogeneity of unmarried lower class rural men as they navigate marriage manhood and mobility Exploring gender relations in China and contributing to global studies of heterosexual masculinities this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese culture and society gender studies and social anthropology

Effects of the Covid-19 Pandemic on Employee Well-Being Raida Abu Bakar, Rosmawani Che Hashim, Man Chung Low, Mohammad Rezaur Razzak, Sharmila Jayasingam, 2023-03-30 This book contributes toward the understanding of the human experience at work during the pandemic and its implications on employee well being in the context of Malaysia a developing economy with its own set of unique challenges Very little research has been done about this issue to date particularly in Malaysia This book aims to bridge this gap by examining the Malaysian perspective of the concept of employee well being in detail with the overarching goal of serving as a guide toward overcoming the challenges wrought on by the ever changing post pandemic environment Different conditions and experiences are discussed to contextualize the unique ways in which individuals react to difficulties with an emphasis on how organizations can assist at a micro level to allow employees to overcome such difficulties
