

Four Core Facets to REMOTE WORK SUCCESS

1 COMPUTER SKILLS

Having a working understanding of the technology needed to be successful on the job including basic navigation, internet browsers, email, chat, search, and windows is crucial to remote success.

76% of workers
would be more willing to stay with their current employer if they could work flexible hours.

+1.4 days of work in additional days per month worked by remote employees compared to their in-office peers. That's 17 additional workdays a year.

2 SELF-RELIANCE

Remote workers must be able to work autonomously. They should be comfortable with isolation and possessing the self-motivation required to work and solve issues alone, without direct supervision or physical access to co-workers.

Communicating via remote means is also a key factor, as is the ability to understand and identify the subtleties of written (vs. verbal) communication.

3 PROPER WORK ENVIRONMENT

Maintaining a dedicated home/work environment that is organized, distraction-free, as well as properly connected and equipped make the transition to remote work much smoother for all.

25% less turnover
reported by companies that allow employees to work remotely for any duration, compared to those that do not.

+24% happier
and more productive as reported by those who work remotely at least once per month.

4 TIME MANAGEMENT

Staying on task without direct supervision is more than an exercise in self-control. Remote workers who can monitor oneself, prioritize, and ensure adherence to schedules are .

workers at online jobs don't encounter most of those situations. They don't need to get dressed in company attire or commute to work. But it can be difficult for online workers to navigate working away from the office. Best practices are not as well defined because online work at least in its current form is still relatively new so it can be difficult to know how you should act when working from home. There is no single formula for how to become an efficient online worker. Everyone will work at different times and have different tips on how to make the most of their time. Indeed one of the major benefits of remote work is the flexibility it affords. Working from home means that you can adjust your schedule to suit your commitments and your timetable as it is in your hands now. However this means that you need to learn what works best for you when managing your priorities and time and everyone is slightly different. That said there are a few common practices you can expect to use as a remote worker. In this guide we've compiled the best practices for online remote workers ranging from how to participate in meetings to how you can find an online job as a remote worker. If you're working from home or aspire to do so this guide is for you.
