Early Ireland An Introduction To Irish Prehistory:

Early Ireland Michael J. O'Kelly, Claire O'Kelly, 1989-04-06 Engagingly written and packed with illustrations Early Ireland offers an authoritative introduction to the riches of Irish prehistory Historical Dictionary of Ireland Frank A. Biletz, 2013-11-14 All places undergo change but in few has this change been quite as sweeping as Ireland both the independent Republic of Ireland and dependent Northern Ireland so it is good to see where it is heading at present Obviously that has to be judged on the background of where it is coming from not only over the past decade or so but over centuries and indeed millennia This new edition of Historical Dictionary of Ireland is an excellent resource for discovering the history of Ireland This is done through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The cross referenced dictionary section has over 600 entries on significant persons places and events political parties and institutions including the Catholic church with period forays into literature music and the arts This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ireland Handbook to Life in Prehistoric Europe Jane McIntosh, 2009 For most of Europe's long past we have no writing no named individuals no recorded deeds This means that its history is almost entirely that of the ordinary individual the hunter gatherer farmer or metallurgist rather than the king Evidence of privileged elites and material splendor is not lacking however The skills and expertise of prehistoric Europeans were often employed in the production of exquisite jewelry elaborately woven cloth beautifully made tools and finely wrought weapons Though the palaces that have attracted excavators in other lands are absent there are few monuments elsewhere in the world to rival Europe's massive megalithic tombs or great stone circles And though individuals preserve their anonymity and many of their secrets modern technology has made it possible to reveal parts of their life history in astonishing detail Handbook to Life in Prehistoric Europe gathers the results of recent archaeological discoveries and scholarly research into a single accessible volume Organized thematically the handbook covers all aspects of life in prehistoric Europe including the geography of the continent settlement trade and transport industry and crafts religion death and burial warfare language the arts and more Complemented with more than 75 illustrations and maps the result is a fascinating introduction to the 7 000 year period that immediately preceded the Roman Empire Ancient Astronomy Clive L.N. Ruggles, 2005-10-21 An authoritative introduction to the fascinating topic of archaeoastronomy ancient peoples understanding and use of the skies Ancient Astronomy An Encyclopedia of Cosmologies and Myth draws on archaeological evidence and oral traditions to reveal how prehistoric humans perceived the skies and celestial phenomena With over 200 entries it offers a number of ways to approach ancient astronomy from key examples and case studies worldwide Stonehenge Mexican and Egyptian pyramids Chaco Canyon New Mexico the Nazca lines in Peru to general themes cosmologies calendars ancient ideas of space and time origin myths to fundamental concepts and methods how the sky has changed over the centuries how to survey a site and to the field's most frequently asked questions How did ancient peoples navigate the ocean using the stars How does astrology relate to ancient astronomy Can ancient sites be dated astronomically By revealing the astronomical significance of some of the world's most famous ancient landmarks and enduring myths and by showing how different themes and concepts are connected Ancient Astronomy An Encyclopedia of Cosmologies and Myth brings a unique authoritative perspective to an area too often left to speculation and sensationalism Houses of the Dead Alistair Barclay, David Field, Jim Leary, 2020-02-28 The chronological disjuncture LBK longhouses have widely been considered to provide ancestral influence for both rectangular and trapezoidal long barrows and cairns but with the discovery and excavation of more houses in recent times is it possible to observe evidence of more contemporary inspiration What do the features found beneath long mounds tell us about this and to what extent do they represent domestic structures Indeed how can we distinguish between domestic houses or halls and those that may have been constructed for ritual purposes or ended up beneath mounds Do so called mortuary enclosures reflect ritual or domestic architecture and did side ditches always provide material for a mound or for building construction This collection of papers seeks to explore the interface between structures often considered to be those of the living with those for the dead The Passage of Arms Richard Bradley, 1990-09-28 A new paperback edition of Richard Bradley's study of the fine objects that were so often buried in hoards or deposited in watery locations such as rivers or bogs Richard Bradley brings his views up to date and answers some of his critics in a new introduction Handbook for British and Irish Archaeology, 1997 A one stop truly comprehensive dedicated and reliable sourcebook for archaeology Journey into Time George Richards, 2011-07-01 What follows in the pages of this book are questions that most people will ask when they read of the ancient past The Why and the When and most importantly the How still eludes the minds of the readers As a result we place our trust in the experts and accept their theories as they relate to the age old questions But are they right in their suppositions How often has the experts had to rewrite history to accommodate new evidence that has surfaced How often have we seen evidence pushed aside to accommodate what the scholars deem an established theory In what follows we will question some of the age old beliefs that still haunt the minds of the human family and offer alternative theories based on the available evidence Enclosures in Neolithic Europe G. Varndell, Peter Topping, 2002-01-01 These papers come from a conference on Neolithic Causewayed Enclosures in Europe held in London in 1999 They present a series of snapshots of some of the sites and regions at the forefront of current research on causewayed enclosures in Europe and as such are a complement to the Royal Commission on the Historical Monuments of England RCHME project which has systematically recorded all known Neolithic enclosures in England by both analytical topographic survey techniques and aerial transcription The detailed regional data collected by the RCHME project has allowed a radical reinterpretation of these sites and the recognition that there are regional groups of enclosures This series of papers serves to broaden the discussion about the structure and form of causewayed monuments beyond lowland England looking at a wide geographical range of sites across central Europe as well as considering some sites which do not conform to the traditional type but which have been proved by excavation to have a Neolithic context This collection of papers provides a long awaited and important addition to the debate on these enigmatic prehistoric sites Encyclopedia of Irish Spirituality Phyllis G. Jestice, 2000-12-18 This work celebrates the links among Ireland's religious traditions over the ages Despite contemporary tensions between Catholics and Protestants the main characteristic of Irish religion has always been accommodation Over the ages the Irish have adapted revived and reinterpreted their religious past not rejected it The Sources for the Early History of Ireland: an Introduction and Guide James Francis Kenney, 1929 Proceedings of the Prehistoric Society Prehistoric Society (London, England), 2010 The Peoples of the British Isles: From prehistoric times to 1688 Stanford E. Lehmberg, Thomas William Heyck, 1992 Fort Peck Tribal Library does not hold volume 1 of this set A Bookman's Guide to Archaeology Richard A. Hand, 1994 The subtitle continues Their Artifacts Inscriptions and Monuments with Prices and Annotations Both Bibliographical and Descriptive A reference tool for the book trade collectors librarians and students cataloging books from the 18th century to 1991 with detailed bibliographical information and accurate pricing as taken from over 200 recent catalogs from booksellers representing South Africa Germany Great Britain and all parts of the US Entries are listed alphabetically by author and also numbered There are 7 106 separate titles described Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Irish Prehistory Anna L. Brindley, 1994 A concise and vivid introduction to the Stone and Bronze Ages of Ireland Anna Brindley takes us back in time to meet our first known ancestors the Mesolithic hunter gatherers who colonised the island of Ireland some ten thousand years ago By 3700 BC with the arrival of the Neolithic peoples hunting and gathering had largely been replaced by farming giving rise to settled communities the development of new tools and weapons permanent burial places and improved methods of transport and communication Some twelve hundred years later as metal started to replace stone for making tools and ornaments this change triggered off a fresh cycle of innovation Just as the earliest farmers may be identified by their use of quernstones and sickles the early metal users may be recognised by their use of copper and bronze tools and weapons This text is lavishly illustrated with an array of ornaments jewellery pottery tools weapons and other artefacts of gold leather wood stone copper and bronze from the prehistoric collection of the National Museum of Ireland British Archaeological Abstracts, 1990 Monumental Beginnings Ed Danaher, 2007 BAR International Series, 1978 Walford's Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullan, Priscilla Schlicke, 1994 Volume 2 of this guide contains descriptions of 8300 plus critically evaluated recommended reference resources available in all formats Organized by Universal Dewey Classification the topics covered are those usually found in the 100s Philosophy Psychology 200s Religion 300s Social Sciences the 900s Geography Biography History This volume particularly reflects the proliferation of travel tourist guides reference works on Eastern Europe Central Asia following the collapse of communism Over the last few years an enormous expansion has also been noted of reference works in both religion philosophy Volume 1 covers Science Technology Volume 3 covers Generalia Languages Literature the Arts
