Cycle Of Racial Oppression In Guyana:

The Cycle of Racial Oppression in Guyana Kean Gibson, 2003 This book is a description and analysis of racism in Guyana from the pre colonial era to the present time There has been oppression by Europeans Africans and currently East Indians The study argues that although all three ethnic groups have practiced oppression based on race the differences between them lie in culture Emphasis is placed on Hindu racism which has been reconstituted in the context of Guyana and bears a similarity to Western racism

Memory and Myth Fiona Darroch, 2009 This book investigates the problematical historical location of the term religion and examines how this location has affected the analytical reading of postcolonial fiction and poetry The adoption of the term religion outside of a Western Enlightenment and Christian context should therefore be treated with caution Within postcolonial literary criticism there has been either a silencing of the category as a result of this caution or an uncritical and essentializing adoption of the term religion It is argued in the present study that a vital aspect of how writers articulate their histories of colonial contact migration slavery and the re forging of identities in the wake of these histories is illuminated by the classificatory term religion Aspects of postcolonial theory and Religious Studies theory are combined to provide fresh insights into the literature thereby expanding the field of postcolonial literary criticism The way in which writers remember history through writing is central to the way in which religion is theorized and articulated the act of remembrance can be persuasively interpreted in terms of religion The title Memory and Myth therefore refers to both the syncretic mythology of Guyana and the key themes in a new critical understanding of religion Particular attention is devoted to Wilson Harris s novel Jonestown alongside theoretical and historical material on the actual Jonestown tragedy to the mesmerizing effect of the Anancy tales on contemporary writers particularly the poet John Agard and to the work of the Indo Guyanese writer David Dabydeen and his elusive character Manu

The Political-Mass Media-Racial Complex in Guyana Prem Misir, 2008 The new millennium juxtaposes different generations who were witnesses to the genesis of turmoil in Guyana Since the year 1992 in which democracy returned to Guyana opposition elements continue to be unreceptive to electoral defeats The disinclination to concede electoral loss since 1992 has become a normative historical behavior in the Guyanese context International observers have validated the four national elections in 1992 1997 2001 and 2006 as being free fair and transparent Today electoral defeat has a relationship with the infamous political mass media racial complex that constantly pursues the destabilization of the state and undermines nation building Essentially this complex is a community of irrationality engaging in a persistent dissemination of despair This book focuses on politics media and race The two main objectives of the work are demonstrating the modus operandi and the dysfunctional consequences of this community of irrationality through the political mass media racial complex and showing the rational behaviors that have held the society together since 1992 In the interest of building a strong nation it may be useful to work toward a transformation of this community of irrationality to a community of rationality

Perspectives on Contemporary Ethnic Conflict Santosh C.

Saha,2006-01-01 The existing traditions of inquiry into ethnic conflict can be classified into four categories essentialism instrumentalism constructivism and institutionalism All four traditions have a distinguished lineage but none can really account for the worldwide spread of ethnic violence We need to move from the local to the macro or global This book using methodology from sociology history and politics will present the complexities of ethnic conflict in terms of linguistics religion territory and tribes in various regions These brilliant essays look at some of the most conflicted sites in the world where ethnic violence has been created and played out Burma Indonesia Rwanda Burundi Nigeria the Sudan Mexico and Guyana Divided into two parts Perspectives on Contemporary Ethnic Conflict is a rich text for scholars of conflict studies focusing on the sources and dynamics of ethnic violence and providing descriptions of ethnic conflict across the globe Transoceanic Dialogues Véronique Bragard,2008 This work offers a close reading of literary works in French and in English by women writers whose ancestors originally came to the Caribbean or across the Indian Ocean as indentured labourers

International Election Observation in the Commonwealth Caribbean Lisa Ann Vasciannie,2017-09-15 This book examines the practice of international election observation in a Caribbean context It presents a survey of the Commonwealth Caribbean perspective and a concise case study of Guyana between 1964 and 2015 This research traces the roots of election observation and how this practice became integrated into the landscape of Caribbean electoral politics More specifically the study examines the process by which election observers have become key actors in elections in the Commonwealth Caribbean One of the issues the book contemplates is why Caribbean countries accept the imposition of observation within the context of sovereignty The case of Guyana and other Anglophone Caribbean states shows the costs of not having observers have been multidimensional and have eclipsed concerns of respecting state sovereignty Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature The Long Space Peter Hitchcock,2009-12-01 The resurgence of world literature as a category of study seems to coincide with what we understand as globalization but how does postcolonial writing fit into this picture Beyond the content of this novel or that what elements of postcolonial fiction might challenge the assumption that its main aim is to circulate native information globally The Long Space provides a fresh look at the importance of postcolonial writing by examining how it articulates history and place both in content and form Not only does it offer a new theoretical model for understanding decolonization's impact on duration in writing but through a series of case studies of Guyanese Somali Indonesian and Algerian writers it urges a more protracted engagement with time and space in postcolonial narrative Although each writer Wilson Harris Nuruddin Farah Pramodya Ananta Toer and Assia Djebar explores a unique understanding of postcoloniality each also makes a more general assertion about the difference of time and space in decolonization Taken together they herald a transnationalism beyond the
