Bruce Elder, 2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema's lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film's provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media's materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author's previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema Dada & Surrealism For Beginners Elsa Bethanis, Peter Bethanis, 2007-08-21 What kind of artists put a mustache on the Mona Lisa Enter a urinal in an art competition Declare their own independent republic Hijack a ship Dadas And what happens in such a movement With Dada many of the artists declared their own Pope and continued their journey with no destination into Surrealism creating burning giraffes amoebic dogs and lobster telephones some of the most imaginative and intense works of art of the 20th Century In Dada Surrealism For Beginners you'll get a colorful overview of these two movements and develop a sense of the turbulent wild and unapologetically mad mood and tone of the Dada and Surrealist movements Whether you're an artist would be artist or someone seeking the marvelous you'll find the courage and originality of the movements inspiring and you'll gain an understanding of their long term and current influences on contemporary art and culture everything from performance art to pop art to the abandoned train ticket you find in the street Manifestes DADA surréalistes Georges Sebbag, 2005 Choix de manifestes parus dans les revues surréalistes de 1919 1969 crits par L Aragon A Artaud A Breton R Desnos M Ernst B P ret etc Dada, Surrealism, and Their Heritage William Rubin, 1968 Catalogue of an exhibition held at the Museum of Modern Art New York on March 27 June 9 1968 Los Angeles County Museum of art July 16 Sept 8 1968 Art Institute of Chicago Oct 19 Dec 8 1968 Please Touch Janine A.
