Dahomey A First:

Opération Crevette Les Sosnowski, Monique Sosnowski, 2024-02-14 Freshly out from under French colonial rule in 1960 the West African nation of Dahomey now Benin became home to the largest number of coups d'état in history earning the reputation of the sick child of Africa Country politics eventually aligned with Marxist and socialist ideologies stimulating French opposition that resulted in mercenary intervention Opération Crevette Benin Mercenaries and the Survival of a New State brings together the voices of the involved mercenaries political rulers and local witnesses to reveal a struggle for power in the former French colony Opération Crevette was a mercenary operation which was intended to remove Benin's eleventh president from power in the 1970s This book analyzes the political social and economic factors that led to this operation as well as the foreign interference from nations like France and America Les and Monique Sosnowski provide a unique perspective of international politics exposing French instigated military intervention and the immense influence Western nations have played in shaping the Africa we know today European Intruders and Changes in Behaviour and Customs in Africa, America and Asia before 1800 Evelyn S. Rawski, 2017-09-08 European intrusions had many impacts on invaded peoples but less attention has often been paid to changes brought about by the encounter in everyday life and behaviour both for the Europeans and the other cultures What changed in diet dress agriculture warfare and use of domesticated animals for example To what degree were attitudes and thus behaviours affected How did changes in the use of types of firearm reorder power structures indeed lead to the rise and fall of competing local states Even the design and planning of houses and cities were affected This volume looks at such changes in the early centuries of European expansion Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON., 2005 The Wesleyan Missionary Notices, Relating Principally to the Foreign Missions First Established by the Rev. John Wesley, M.A. the Rev. Dr. Coke and Others, and Now Carried on Under the Direction of the Methodist Conference, 1875 African Military History John Lamphear, 2017-05-15 This collection of essays on pre colonial sub Saharan African military history is drawn from a number of academic journals and includes some which are considered milestones in African historiographical discourse as well as others which while lesser known provide remarkable insight into the unique nature of African military history Selections were made so as to produce an introduction to the understudied field of pre colonial African military history that will be useful to specialists and non specialists alike The volume also contains an introduction which presents one of the first significant reviews of pre colonial African military historiography ever attempted First Footsteps in East Africa, Or, An Exploration of Harar Sir Richard Francis Burton, 1894 Official Report of the Proceedings of the First International Congress of Delegated Representatives of Master Cotton Spinners' and Manufacturers' Associations Held at the Tonhalle, Zürich, May 23 to 27, 1904, 1904 Handbooks, 1920 Published to provide British delegates with information for the Peace Conference A History of the British and Foreign Bible Society William Canton, 1910
