Doing Gender Doing Difference Social Inequality Power And Resistance:

Children of Global Migration Rhacel Parreñas, 2005-03-25 In the Philippines a dramatic increase in labor migration has created a large population of transnational migrant families. Thousands of children now grow up apart from one or both parents as the parents are forced to work outside the country in order to send their children to school, give them access to quality health care or in some cases just provide them with enough food. While the issue of transnational families has already generated much interest, this book is the first to offer a close look at the lives of the children in these families. Drawing on in-depth interviews with the family members left behind, the author examines two dimensions of the transnational family. First, she looks at the impact of distance on the intergenerational relationships, specifically from the children's perspective. She then analyzes gender norms in these families, both their reifications and transgressions in transnational households.

Acknowledging that geographical separation unavoidably strains family intimacy, Parreñas argues that the maintenance of traditional gender ideologies exacerbates and sometimes even creates the tensions that plague many Filipino migrant families.

From the Kitchen to the Parlor Lanita Jacobs-Huey, 2006-04-20 When is hair just hair and when is it not just hair? Documenting the politics of African American women's hair, this multi-sited linguistic ethnography explores everyday interaction in beauty parlors, Internet discussions, comedy clubs, and other contexts to illuminate how and why hair matters in African American women's day-to-day experiences.

Doing Gender, Doing Difference Sarah Fenstermaker, Candace West, 2013-05-13 For the first time, the anthologized works of Sarah Fenstermaker and Candace West have been collected along with new essays to provide a complete understanding of this topic of tremendous importance to scholars in social science.

Conflict and Innovation Leo Douw, Kwok B. Chan, 2006 This book features China's newly emergent transnational management culture. It uses established and new methodologies to analyze how different types of Sino-foreign joint enterprises manage cultural differences and negotiate strategies that contain conflicts and frustrations. In doing so, the book suggests alternative pathways toward innovative business management in China.

Oppression, Privilege, and Resistance Lisa Maree Heldke, Peg O'Connor, 2004 This anthology is a philosophical reader on racism, sexism, heterosexism, and classism with a distinct theoretical framework that provides coherence and cohesion to the readings. The book is framed by a model of racism, sexism, heterosexism, and classism that understands these phenomena as interlocking systems of oppression. Resting upon this oppression model are two sets of theories: one concerned with the phenomenon of privilege, the companion of oppression, and the other with resistance, the response to oppression.

New Books on Women and Feminism, 2002 Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb, 2007-10-19 The five volumes of this ultimate resource recognize the inherent unity between business ethics and business and society that stems from their shared primary concern with value in commerce. This Encyclopedia spans the relationships among business ethics and society by including more than 800 entries that feature broad coverage of corporate social responsibility the obligation of companies to various stakeholder groups the contribution of business to society and culture and the relationship between organizations and the quality of the environment Doing Diversity in Higher Education Winnifred R.

Brown-Glaude,2008 Using case studies from universities throughout the nation Doing Diversity in Higher Education examines the role faculty play in improving diversity on their campuses The power of professors to enhance diversity has long been underestimated their initiatives often hidden from view Winnifred Brown Glaude and her contributors uncover major themes and offer faculty and administrators a blueprint for conquering issues facing campuses across the country Topics include how to dismantle hostile microclimates sustain and enhance accomplishments deal with incomplete institutionalization and collaborate with administrators The contributors essays portray working on behalf of diversity as a genuine intellectual project rather than a faculty service The rich variety of colleges and universities included provides a wide array of models that faculty can draw upon to inspire institutional change The Blackwell Encyclopedia of
