Opening Up Middle English Manuscripts Kathryn Kerby-Fulton, Maidie Hilmo, Linda Olson, 2024-05-15 Deeply informed and lavishly illustrated Opening Up Middle English Manuscripts is a comprehensive introduction to the modern study of Middle English manuscripts. It is intended for students and scholars who are familiar with some of the major Middle English literary works such as The Canterbury Tales, Gawain and the Green Knight, Piers Plowman and the romances, mystical works or cycle plays but who may not know much about the surviving manuscripts. The book approaches these texts in a way that takes into account the whole manuscript or codex, its textual and visual contents, physical state, readership and cultural history. Opening Up Middle English Manuscripts also explores the function of illustrations in fashioning audience response to particular authors and their texts over the course of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. Kathryn Kerby-Fulton, Linda Olson and Maidie Hilmo, scholars at the forefront of the modern study of Middle English manuscripts, focus on the writers most often taught in Middle English courses, including Geoffrey Chaucer, William Langland, the Gawain Poet, Thomas Hoccleve, Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe, highlighting the specific issues that shaped literary production in late medieval England. Among the topics they address are the rise of the English language, literacy, social conditions of authorship, early instances of the Alliterative Revival, women and book production, nuns, libraries, patronage, household books, religious and political trends and attempts at revisionism and censorship. As of 2024, Opening Up Middle English Manuscripts is available as an ebook, ideal for instructors teaching the book in courses. The fully searchable PDF ebook version is available through most digital textbook platforms and library ebook aggregation platforms.

Shifting Journalism Boundaries in Zimbabwe Mphahisi Ndlovu, Lungile Tshuma, 2025-12-03 This book investigates the ways in which peripheral news actors in digital media are transforming journalism in Zimbabwe. Journalism's boundaries have become blurred, porous and fuzzy as non-traditional news actors such as bloggers, social media influencers, citizen journalists, start-ups, satirists, comedians and fact-checkers gain increasing influence in digital spaces. As legacy news media attempt to ring-fence the field, journalism becomes both bounded and boundless. This book examines how peripheral journalistic practices are impacting Zimbabwe, a semi-authoritarian regime facing significant economic pressures. Taking into account Zimbabwe's specific sociocultural, political and economic context, this book explores how political issues are mediated by periphery actors, how they deal with challenges to their legitimacy and professionalism, how sustainable their positions are and finally what the implications of shifting journalistic boundaries are for education and training institutions. As the impact of digital technologies continues to rise, this timely book will be an important read for researchers working on journalism, media and communication and African studies.
