

Sure, I can help you with that! Here are a few questions you can use to gather information about training needs from line managers:

1. What skills or knowledge do your team members currently possess?
2. What skills or knowledge do your team members need to perform their jobs more effectively?
3. Are there any skills or knowledge gaps that you've identified in your team? If so, what are they?
4. Have there been any instances where a lack of training or knowledge has affected the team's performance?
5. Are there any new tasks or responsibilities that your team will be taking on in the near future? If so, what training do they need to be able to handle these tasks effectively?
6. Are there any industry-specific certifications or training programs that your team members should pursue in order to stay up-to-date with best practices and new developments in their field?
7. Are there any training programs or resources that your team members have found particularly helpful in the past?
8. Are there any team members who are interested in pursuing career advancement or personal development opportunities through training? If so, what are their goals and what type of training would be most helpful to them?

I hope these questions give you a good starting point for your survey. Let me know if you have any other questions or if there's anything else I can help with!
