Not My Barista Rachelle Ayala,2024-03-04 The cute barista is a wannabe writer and Gina Griffin doesn't date wannabe writers She's a bestselling women's fiction author and doesn't need to take a clueless beginner under her wing especially a handsome one who's so awkward with words that she finds endearing But Henry Archer is no ordinary barista He's a tech billionaire in disguise and the mastermind behind an AI chatbot designed to write like humans Henry is captivated by Gina's talent and determined to learn from her What Gina doesn't know is that he's also using her word choices to fine tune the very technology that she fears might render her craft obsolete As they grow closer Henry finds himself in a moral quandary torn between his growing feelings for Gina and the innovative technology that could change the writing industry forever Gina in turn is drawn to the charming barista with a passion for words warning him against using AI and teaching him to write from the heart Love is the last thing either one of them expects As Gina grows curious about Henry's identity and Henry frets over his newest breakthrough a hidden enemy forces his hand Will the exploding truth destroy Henry and Gina's budding romance or inspire the greatest love story ever written

Enterprise, 2000-10 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance American Photo, 1996-03 The Almighty Machine Pekka Vahvanen, 2022-02-25 The hymn of Digitalization is nothing new We must encourage the creation of new apps We must develop AI in order to prevail among international competition Technology's advance will halt climate change and let robots do the dumb stuff for us Our faith in technology is powerful because it has saved us in the past The Almighty Machine shows us technology's flip side The things that once powered us toward a brighter tomorrow are already undermining our quality of life The data stream has shattered our concentration human relationships have been reduced to a menu of emojis constant surveillance has nullified much of our privacy and the development of AI could be the beginning of the end for us We are becoming the casualties of our own success Pekka Vahvanen's bristling and timely critique deftly translated by Mark Jones throws doubt on the necessity of technological development in a world saturated in tech The Almighty Machine presents an important question Does progress no longer make us happier The Politics of Combating Human Trafficking in the United States Nancy E. Marion, Kimberly J. Hufgard, 2025-03-04 This book examines political responses to the problem of human trafficking including proposals actions legislative and executive and statements made by politicians government agencies and civil society organizations to solve or mitigate the crime of human trafficking The objective is not just to recognize the nature and impact of human trafficking but to understand the approaches used or recommended to solve the problem and the motivations behind such strategies The issue of human trafficking has become particularly important given the charged environment regarding border politics The book details the various policy options that have been proposed supported opposed or passed by US politicians over the past five to ten years This includes decisions made by presidents legislators national and state agencies and interest groups Court decisions on human trafficking policies and media coverage of events are also explored This political analysis is designed to help readers understand what motivated the proposals designed to address human trafficking and the impact those policies had or are having This book is ideal as a primary text for college courses in human trafficking and modern slavery or a supplemental text for a range of scholarly courses of study including human rights criminal justice law and political science It is recommended for anyone with an interest in human trafficking and what might be done to stop it
